WALL STREET
BULL CROWD RETURNS TO STOCKS, BUT
MEETS CHECK

Substantial Progress Is Made in Early Period and Extreme Gains of 2 to 9 Points Are Recorded—Most Lost in Final Hour.

EASY TONE TO THE CLOSING MARKET

Movement of Shares Roughly Correspond to That in Commodities—Cotton Has Moderate Rally After Previous Day's Slump.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(Professionals) Bull operators became impatient in today's stock market, and tried to launch a fresh upward movement, but it proved about as solid as the last bear experiment.

Stocks made substantial progress during the early hours of the session, and extreme gains of two to nine points were recorded, but most of the advance was lost in the final hour. Traders who had bought for a time seemed to have little faith in the move, and hurried to take profits, while confirmed bears welcomed higher prices at which to sell short. Most of the gains were lost in the final hour, and the closing tone was easy. Sales aggregated 1,855,000 shares, about 400,000 above yesterday.

Commodity Course Similar. The movement in stocks roughly corresponded to that in commodities. Grains were firm during the early part of the session, but sagged toward the close. Cotton futures were practically unchanged, and moved up 1/4 to 1/2 cent. Weather reports were bearish. Cotton moved about 70 cents to $11.10 a bale, a moderate rally after yesterday's loss.

While definite recovery in commodity markets has in the past been behind general business recovery, usually by several months, the new fresh selling in the cotton and grain markets have been unwilling to the stock market, and failure of steel operations to improve has been disappointing.

Foreign exchanges were inclined to be a little firmer. Extensive gold sales, however, appeared checked for time being. The Canadian dollar returned to par, for the first time since early July, and sterling cables were easy at $4.57 1/2.

Comments on Situation. Although the market has been responsive to optimistic professional forecasts for some time, professional operators, finding themselves against a stone wall on the bear side of the market, were quick to make the most of available market, susceptible to bullish intervention.

Bankers and statistical services have been pointing out for some time that consumption was running ahead of production, thus making the way for a fresh start. They have found it difficult to interpret slack industrial operations as anything but a temporary lull.

A statement by Harvey Firestone to the effect that America is on the eve of greater prosperity than has been known during the past 10 years, also helped market sentiment. In addition, the American Machine & Tool Builders' association struck a more optimistic note in this publication, had been all summer, pointing to a flood of inquiries that really meant business in the not-too-distant future.

Trade Professional. Although the volume of trading picked up a little, it was still light and almost entirely professional. There are still a few flat notes, however, in the chorus of business news and opinions.

Money remained easy, with funds plentifully available outside at 2 1/2 per cent.

Stock prices, with other tables and market news, will be found on pages 9, 10C and 11C.

Deaths. French Post, Dies. PARIS, Aug. 19.—Andre Riviere, one of the noted French poets of the generation, died today. He was 70 years old.

ATTORNEYS OF STRUGGLE

BEFORE SWIFT'S DEATH

Examiner Making Further Inquiry; No Trace of Alcoholism.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The post-mortem examination of the body of William E. Swift, 30, who was shot in a struggle for possession of a pistol in the sanitarium where he was held, was completed Saturday night.

Under investigation today by Charles G. Norris, chief medical examiner, the body was found to have been shot in the chest.

Edward A. Cowles, owner of the sanitarium, and others were subpoenaed to appear at a hearing before Dr. Norris at which the medical examiner hopes to clear up the case in connection with Swift's death.

Before the body was taken to Chicago in charge of Alden A. brother, yesterday, Dr. Norris performed a second and complete autopsy.

Dr. Norris said he was surprised that the examination had failed to disclose traces of alcohol. When Swift's death was reported, police said they had been told he had suffered from alcohol.

In the report of Dr. C. Fisher, an assistant medical examiner, who had charge of the case, caused Dr. Norris to think some facts concerning Swift had not been fully explained.

DRIVER WHO GOT 2 YEARS FOR AUTO KILLING PAROLED

Harry Murphy, St. Louis, Has Served Seven Months for Striking Woman Waiting for Street Car.

12 OTHERS FREED FROM STATE PRISON

Former Peace Officer of Cape Girardeau County and Ex-Banker of Gallatin Among Them.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 19.—Harry Murphy, St. Louis automobile salesman, who has served seven months and three weeks of a two-year sentence for manslaughter with an automobile was paroled today by Gov. Caulfield on the recommendation of the State, Penal Board and former Circuit Attorney J. L. Lenoir of St. Louis.

Murphy, who is 35 years old, drove the automobile that killed Mrs. May Martin, 25 years old, 2419 Armand place, and seriously injured Miss Beulah Cline, 6746 Nashville avenue, as they waited for a street car on South Jefferson street at Armand place, Aug. 18, 1927.

"Tried to Avoid Collision." At his trial before a jury in Circuit Judge Rowland's court, Murphy testified he struck the two women as he swerved into the street car tracks to avoid colliding with another automobile that had turned suddenly and stopped in front of him. He testified he halted 10 feet from the scene of the accident, and then drove on to the next block where he abandoned his automobile.

Defenses testified Murphy confessed that he had been drinking before the accident and had only a vague recollection of what happened. Miss Cline, whose skull was fractured, was unable to testify at the trial, but other witnesses said the two women were in the street zone and not in the car tracks as Murphy had said.

The sentence was one of the most severe ever imposed in St. Louis for an automobile fatality.

Twelve other convicts were paroled by the Governor on the recommendation of the State Penal Board.

William Browning, 62, Jackson, former peace officer in Cape Girardeau County, was paroled after serving 10 months of a two-year sentence for driving an automobile into a building.

Homer Feurt, 52, Gallatin, former president of the defunct Farmers' Exchange bank of Gallatin, was paroled after serving two years and two months of a four-year sentence for receiving deposits when he knew the bank was in a failing condition. He was paroled to State Penitentiary of Schools Charles A. Lee, who had urged his release in support of a parole it was said.

Others paroled are: Victor Murphy, 42, Negro, St. Louis, 35 years from March 28, 1924, for killing his wife in a restaurant at 212 Franklin avenue, St. Louis on Feb. 9, 1924.

Leslie Lovelace, Cape Girardeau, 10 years from Jan. 4, 1926, first degree robbery.

Raymond T. Wilking, Kansas City, five years from Nov. 2, 1929, first degree burglary.

Clarence Stewart, Kansas City, two years from March 11, 1929, first degree robbery.

N. W. Harris, Marion County, two years from Dec. 11, 1929, transporting liquor.

Beverly Alcorn, St. Francois County, two years from March 7 last, grand larceny.

John Eggers, Crawford County, two years from Jan. 6 last, grand larceny.

Karl Stephen, Miller County, two years from Sept. 16, 1929, possessing a liquor still.

Floyd Foster, Pulaski County, two years from March 19 last, grand larceny.

Thomas Crabtree, Stone County, two years from Jan. 4 last, grand larceny.

CHECK FORGER'S NEW DEAL

Again Loses Name of T. C. Hennings Jr. on Death.

The check forger who during the last 16 days has made several attempts to obtain a new name, to escape checks bearing the forged signature of Assistant Circuit Attorney Thomas C. Hennings Jr., apparently put over another yesterday as a lamp, marked paid, was returned at the Hennings home last night from a downtown furniture store.

As in previous instances, Hennings had not ordered the merchandise, and the forger, who paid the purchase by check, gained nothing.

CRANKCASE OF PLANE CRACKED, EXPERTS SAY

Mechanics Verify Trouble Reported by Jackson and O'Brien—Replace Engine.

The statement of Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien that the crankcase of their engine was cracked when they landed at the municipal airport Sunday morning after 27 days in the air was corroborated today by experts at the Curtiss-Robertson Airplane Manufacturing Co., where the endurance plane is being equipped with a new engine.

The preliminary report of the experts states that no serious failure occurred in the engine. Two top cylinders apparently did not get any oil during the latter days of the flight, and a small crack was found in the crankcase. A second crack in the crankcase, at first thought to be a crack, is merely a scratch, the report states. The crack in the crankcase caused a slight loss of oil, but did not seriously reduce the efficiency of the engine, the experts agree.

Further examination will be made in an effort to learn the cause of the interruption in oiling system to two of the six cylinders of the engine.

Installation of the new engine will be completed today and the flyers plan to depart tomorrow for Sedalia, where they will appear in a refueling demonstration Saturday at the Missouri State Fair.

Bill Pickens, their manager, announced that he has closed a contract for $1500 for refueling demonstration at the New York State Fair at Syracuse next month. The contract increases to $37,000 the total amount of contracts for refueling demonstrations signed to date, the flyers having previously agreed to appear at the Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio and Indiana fairs.

Pickens is to receive 25 per cent of all contracts he closes.

The flyers earned $8800 while in the air and have collected two awards of $1000 each since landing from the concerns making the spark plugs and the propeller used on their plane. There is $4200 remaining in their public subscription flight fund, giving them a total of cash on hand and in immediate earnings of $52,000. The fuel bill for the last week of the flight and incidental expenses, which will be paid from the flight fund, amount to less than $800.

Last year Jackson and O'Brien earned $27,000 for setting an endurance record and received the airplane, which they used this year. The refueling ship in the flight just ended is O'Brien's personal plane. The two planes and their effort represent the flyers' contribution to the flight.

On their tour of state fairs Jackson will give a stunting exhibition in a speedy sport plane in addition to the refueling demonstration.

WOMAN SCREAMS, POLICEMAN FIRES TO HALT AUTOMOBILE

Patrolman Finds Driver Took Estranged Wife for Ride Against Her Will.

Patrolman Stussie of Central District heard a woman scream as an automobile drove north in Fifth street from Pine street last night. He pursued the machine on foot and after he had fired a shot, the driver stopped in an alley between Olive and Locust streets.

John Ohmeyer, 4019 Delmar boulevard, said he was taking his estranged wife for a ride. The wife, Mrs. Alva Ohmeyer of the Palace Hotel, said she had screamed because she didn't want to go. She would not prosecute and Ohmeyer was released.

THIRD STRONG BOX OF ZUTA IS FOUND, NEW DATA INSIDE

Information Is Said to Be More Up-to-Date and to Give Opportunity for Prosecution.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—A third strong-box containing more of the secrets of the slain Jack Zuta's transactions with prominent Chicago political figures, was reported late today to have been discovered by the State's Attorney's investigators into the gangster's affairs.

In this third box, according to unofficial information obtained from the investigators, are papers bearing much more recent dates than those on papers previously made public. The importance of this lay in the fact that it would bring the papers within the statute of limitations which has barred grand jury action on the papers previously found.

The Chief of Police of Evanston and the city editor of the Chicago Daily News have been added to the list of the persons who had financial dealings with Zuta, shot to death three weeks ago at a Delafield (Wis.) lake resort.

Investigators for the State's Attorney's office, going through the records found in Zuta's secret safe deposit box, found the names "Bill Freeman" and "John Craig." They called in William O. Freeman, who has for three years been head of the police department in the exclusive and wealthy North Shore suburb. Confronted with a letter asking Zuta for $400, Freeman admitted borrowing that amount from the gangster. He said he had offered to repay the money, but never did.

Investigators called in "John Craig, city editor of the Daily News, and he identified his signature on an unrecorded check for $50. Craig told of being accommodated by Zuta when he wanted a check cashed at an inn.

"After a month or so I noticed the check did not come through the bank, so I inquired about it," Craig related. "He said the matter was all right. I replied that I did not do business in that way, and I gave him the cash. I asked him for a check and he said he had torn it up."

Had No Account, Police Say. Investigators said they had been told at the bank on which the check was drawn that Craig had never had an account there. He explained that the account was in his wife's name, but that the bank had honored checks he had signed.

The evidence placed before Freeman was a letter written on stationery of the Evanston police department. It follows: "Dear Jack: I am temporarily in need of four 'C's' for a couple of months. Can you let me have what it is, so put it in an envelope and seal it and address it to me. Your old pal, Bill Freeman."

"P. S.—Will let you know the night of the party, so be sure and come."

Charles F. Rathbun, Special Assistant State's Attorney appointed to investigate the murder of Alfred J. Lingie, Tribune reporter, said Freeman admitted the signature was his, although he could not remember having written the letter.

Freeman explained that he asked for the money at the time he became head of the Evanston Police Department. His new post necessitated his moving at once to Evanston, although he had a lease on a flat in Chicago. He needed the money, he said, to meet the claim made by Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope of New York and Newport, who were killed last night when her automobile collided with another. Her father is a widely known architect.

TWO NEGROES GET YEAR ON CHARGE OF FRAUD

Tried to Convince Tenement Owner That One of Them Was Injured in His Building.

Floyd Mays and Kenneth Saunders, Negroes, were sentenced to one year in the workhouse by Provisional Judge Dubinsky in Court of Criminal Correction today for conspiracy to defraud in an attempt to convince a tenement owner that Saunders had been injured in his building.

A policeman testified that Saunders had confessed that he and Mays went to a hallway at 2651 Lucas avenue where Mays knocked down some plaster so that it fell on Saunders' head. The men then retained a lawyer who sought to collect damages from the owner, William Schaefer, 3987 Arroyo avenue. Mays and Saunders denied the charge.

MODEL PLANE KING GOES TO STATE FAIR

Joseph Ehrhardt, Back From Contest in Germany, Accompanies St. Louis Delegation.

Joseph Ehrhardt, who won the world's championship for model airplane construction in London last month, spent today at the Missouri State Fair at Sedalia as guest of the Greater St. Louis delegation of the Chamber of Commerce.

Joseph, a tall, slender, blond youth of 17 with a ready smile, arrived in St. Louis yesterday aboard a passenger plane from Chicago, after welcoming ceremonies at Lambert-St. Louis Airport and at City Hall. He went home to 7020 Wile avenue to tell his mother and brothers about the European trip and the international competition in which he defeated men and boys of all nations.

This morning he was aboard a special train which left Union Station for Sedalia at 8 o'clock. With him were 325 St. Louisans, the largest number ever to make a similar trip. City and Chamber of Commerce delegates accompanied the towns in St. Louis County and representatives of more than a score of civic and commercial organizations were in the party.

To Be Greeted by Planes. Waiting at Sedalia to welcome the delegation were airplanes of the Missouri National Guard, Sedalia's 100-piece band, officials of the fair organization and of Sedalia's city government. The St. Louis delegation was to witness harness races at the fairgrounds this afternoon and the running of the Greater St. Louis Stake, a race for the Greater St. Louis trophy. The party will arrive home at 11:15 p. m.

A dozen city automobiles, including those of Mayor Miller and Fire Chief Alf and several from the Police Department, were drawn up in parade order at Lambert-St. Louis Field yesterday when the Chicago plane landed. The National Guard air unit, which was to have escorted the plane into the airport, had not left the ground as the passenger ship arrived 20 minutes early. However, they took off at once and circled the field in formation while officials and Joseph's relatives and friends welcomed him back.

At the City Hall, Acting Mayor Neun congratulated the champion, commented on a slight physical resemblance to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and told Joseph's mother.

Among those whose names have appeared in Zuta's papers are Judge Joseph W. Schulman of Municipal Court; Emanuel Eller, former Judge of the Municipal, Superior and Criminal Courts; George Van Lent, former State Senator, and Richard J. Williams, former Police Sergeant.

PASSENGRERS FIGHT BLAZE IN AIRPLANE

Pilot Lands Machine From Height of 3000 Feet Just Before Gasoline Explodes.

By the Associated Press. PONTIAC, Mich., Aug. 19.—While his four passengers—one of them a woman—protected him and themselves with fire extinguishers, Bernard Rawson, 22 years old, a Bay City (Mich.) pilot, yesterday safely landed a burning airplane from a height of 3000 feet.

Rawson, handling a cabin monoplane for the Aircraft Corporation, was taking the passengers from Cleveland to Bay City, near here. Cleo Slagle and Miss Florence Davis, on the front seat, discovered the fire and called to Rawson.

While the pilot dropped looking for a landing place, Slagle, Miss Davis and the other passengers—George Commons and Bousfield Ward—seized fire extinguishers and kept the flames out of the cabin.

After dropping 2500 feet, Rawson saw that the blaze was growing more serious and landed at once, barely missing a hedge fence. A few minutes after the five left the plane, it was wrecked by a gasoline explosion.

Except for scratches due to their hurried exit the occupants of the plane were unhurt. All of the passengers live in Bay City.

$100 AND DIAMONDS VALUED AT $400 TAKEN IN HOLDUP

The jewelry store of Emil H. Blust, 2742 Cherokee street, was robbed of $100 and four diamond rings, valued at $400, today, by an armed man, who drove two clerks to the basement.

The clerks, Charles Buesther and Thomas MacCawley, were alone in the store when the robber entered.

$50,000,000 FOR DROUTH RELIEF IN ST. LOUIS BANK

U. S. Credit Concern Has This Amount Available for Farm Loans in Missouri, Arkansas, Illinois.

CAN MAKE ADVANCES TO CO-OPERATIVES

Paper of Commercial Depositories and Live Stock Finance Agencies Will Be Discounted.

A recourse of farmers in Missouri, Illinois and Arkansas was pointed out yesterday by Wood Netherland, president of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank in St. Louis, in the $50,000,000 which the concern has to loan to banks, co-operatives or agricultural credit corporations for the farmers in the three states of this district.

Present indications were that the drouth would materially increase demands on its credit facilities for the rest of this year and next, he said, possibly to the extent of doubling or more than doubling them. He added that this was a resource which farmers had not fully utilized.

While the drouth to some extent had depleted the assets of those farmers most in need, he said, most of those who owned their farms still had livestock and other acceptable collateral.

Functions of Bank.
"The intermediate credit banks have two principal functions," Netherland said. "One is to make loans to co-operatives marketing associations of farmers on the security of warehouse receipts representing staple agricultural commodities, and the other is to discount for commercial banks, both state and national, agricultural credit corporations and live stock loan companies, farmers' notes, the proceeds of which have been or will be used for an agricultural purpose, or for the breeding, fattening or marketing of live stock."

"The Federal Intermediate Credit Bank is valuable assistance in the distressing situation which has been created because of the drouth. This does not mean that the intermediate credit bank is in any sense a philanthropic institution. It secures most of its funds from the public, through the sale of tax-exempt debentures, and it is necessary to be careful of the business which it accepts in order to justify a continuance of that confidence which the investing public now has in intermediate credit bank debentures."

Organization for Credit.
"In addition to the fact that the intermediate credit bank is in a position to discount for either state or national banks, the Federal intermediate credit act provides for the organization of what are known as 'agricultural credit corporations,' which may be formed by the citizens of any community. These corporations must have a minimum capital stock of $10,000, but in order to secure better management and to do a larger volume of business profitably, the capital stock of these local credit organizations should be somewhat in excess of the minimum. When the local credit organizations have been formed they are then in a position to apply for the rediscount privilege with the Federal intermediate credit bank and secure from three to seven times this amount of money in order to make loans to deserving farmers of the local community."

$150,000 REALTY PROFIT SUIT
B. L. Ottenad Sues Amount on Mount Hope Cemetery Sales.
Suit for $150,000 and 6 per cent interest was filed in Circuit Court at Clayton yesterday by Bernard L. Ottenad, president of the Ottenad Realty Co., 3312 South Grand boulevard, against Ben G. Brinkman, president of the Mount Hope Realty Co.
Ottenad originally filed an equity suit for the $150,000 and filed the new action yesterday after Circuit Judge Lashly held that an equity suit was not the proper method of recovery. The $150,000, Ottenad alleges, is a fourth of the profits from the operation of Mount Hope Cemetery, Telegraph and Lemay Ferry roads.

132 VIENNESE CHURCHES HOLD MEMORIAL FOR FRANZ JOSEF

Display of Monarchist Flag Forbidden on 100th Anniversary of Emperor's Birth.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, Austria, Aug. 19.—Thousands of persons of Republican Austria gathered yesterday in 132 Viennese churches on the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Emperor Franz Josef. A pontifical mass was said.

The display of the black and yellow flag of the former monarchy and the singing of the ancient national anthem were forbidden. Everywhere the celebration was peaceful. All day long processions of monarchists visited the crypt of the Cyprius monastery where the body of the monarch is buried. At Bad Ischl, where Franz Josef spent 60 summers consecutively at his villa, the anniversary celebration was less restricted. The whole population, attired for a festival, turned out with brass bands and sang the praises of the old regime.

Deputations of all the Austrian hunting clubs met in the grounds of the villa in honor of the famous imperial chamolais, stag and hare hunts, during which on several occasions more than 500 head of game fell on one day before the Emperor's gun.

At night the initials "F. J." were traced by electric lights on the side of the Struckogel Mountain opposite the villa.

TERRORISM USED IN NEW YORK TO PROP FOOD PRICES

Egg Dealers Describe Hoodlum Methods Used by Jobbers to Stop Sale of Utah Product.

SUDDEN INCREASE IN MILK COST

Referees for State Attorney-General Hold Hearings on Effort to Take Advantage of Drouth Scare.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Instances of intimidation and hoodlum rule as instruments in price boosting during the drouth scare here were described in the testimony of 15 food and milk dealers at hearings in the Attorney-General's investigation into profiteering yesterday.

Although they mentioned the name of no specific organization, witnesses at the milk hearing before Referee Charles C. Johnson, told of being forced to pay an additional price for loose milk and of hearing that a "new wholesale milk dealers' association" had set the price of $4.40 for a 40-quart can, a jump of nearly a dollar in a week.

Before Referee John Holley Clark Jr., several witnesses told of an organization of jobbers, using truckmen as tools, that interfered with the distributors of 3,000,000 Utah eggs because the Utah Poultry Producers' Association could undersell them about 5 cents a dozen.

Benjamin Brown, director of markets for the Utah Association, testified that after he contracted with the Jewish Grocers' Association to furnish a carload of Utah eggs a day, representatives of a jobbers' association warned him he was spoiling the regular setup and truckmen began picketing his place of business.

Tires Punctured. This picketing, it was said, took the form of threatening other truckmen who wanted to deal with the Utah association. One truckman, Anthony Protano, told of his tires being punctured with an ice pick while he was getting a load of Utah eggs.

"A man came up to me," he testified, "and asked: 'Where did you get your eggs?' I told him from the Utah Poultry Co. and he said: 'That's why you got your tires punctured.'"

"So I canceled orders for 130 dozen Utah eggs though there is a demand for them and I would like to be able to get them."

Brown said the action of the jobbers in refusing to buy Utah eggs and attempting to prevent others from doing so, had cut the association's output about in half and eggs which ordinarily would find a ready market were put in storage.

Warned Not to Interfere. Brown testified that his association had been delivering three carloads of eggs a day in New York until a month ago, and that its business was steadily growing until a stranger visited his office and warned him not to interfere with "our racket." He identified the visitor as a Mr. Capelovich of the Vineland Butter and Egg Co.

"You better get wise and not butt into the regular set-up in New York by selling direct to retail grocers," Brown quoted Capelovich as saying. "Remember, you have been warned."

Other witnesses told of threats and vandalism by which they had been induced to quit trading with the Utah Association.

Samuel Horowitz, manager of the Jewish Grocers' Association, testified drivers of the association's trucks were threatened by jobbers and their truckmen for buying direct instead of through the jobbers, though by buying direct the grocers saved five to 10 cents a dozen for themselves and their customers.

Made said the change had not been finally decided on. Discontinuance of the line was recommended to make buses available for other lines.

Rescue Crews Succeeded in Penetrating Further Into Shaft at Blakelyburn, B. C.
By the Associated Press.
BLAKELYBURN, B. C., Aug. 19.—Ten bodies were found last night in the Blakelyburn mine where 45 workers were entombed in an explosion last Wednesday. Three bodies previously had been recovered.
Rescue workers returning to the pit head just before midnight announced the bodies were located on No. 1 stope. Other bodies had been found near the pit portal. Rescuers had penetrated quite a distance from where they were temporarily halted by Friday's fire. No attempts were made to identify the dead men. Workers said, with cave-ins blocking the stope, it might be several days before the bodies could be brought out.

COURT REFUSES SEPARATION TO MRS. JAMES C. WILLSON

New York Judge Rules Aviation Financier and Wife Are Residents of Louisville.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Mrs. James C. Willson, wife of the wealthy aviation financier, failed to get separation from her husband yesterday although she told the court he had frequently asked her for a divorce. The case was thrown out by Supreme Court Justice Schmuck on the ground the Willsons are residents of Louisville, Ky., and outside the jurisdiction of the New York courts.

Mrs. Willson wished to get $48,000 a year from her husband. She estimated his fortune at $10,000,000 to $20,000,000.

The matrimonial woes of the Willsons, married March 29, 1927, was told in a legal composition of Max D. Steuer, attorney for Mrs. Willson. Willson repeatedly asked her for a divorce. Mrs. Willson said, and she as frequently refused.

Mrs. Willson narrated to the Court a scene at 4 a. m. last April 25 in their Park Lane apartment. Willson was intoxicated, according to his wife. There were mounds of powder on his evening clothes and his handkerchief was streaked with lipstick red.

"What have you been doing?" she asked him.
He said he replied, "I've been out with a white rabbit."

Mrs. Willson said that after this incident her husband refused to permit her or her friends to accompany him to a party he gave at the Kentucky Derby. She was in Louisville at the time for the wedding of a niece.

She testified her husband refused to allow Turner Clarke, her son by a previous marriage, and student at the University of Virginia, to attend a Christmas party at their apartment, although his son and daughter by a previous marriage were present.

Mrs. Willson said their living expenses have amounted to $100,000 a year and that she has had an annual allowance of $100,000 for clothing. He owns a plane and leased a yacht last summer for $12,000, according to his wife.

FULFILLS DEATHBED PROMISE TO WED, FACES BIGAMY CHARGE

Kansas City Man Says Friend Wanted to See All Her Daughters Married.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 19.—Because he fulfilled a deathbed promise, George W. Hancock, 24 years old, now must face bigamy charges.

Last Thursday, Hancock who already had a wife and 4-year-old daughter, left home to visit the Hecke family at Bethel, Kan. Mrs. Alice V. Hecke, the mother who was very ill, told Hancock she was going to die and asked him if he were going to marry her youngest daughter Alice Lorine, 19, so she would die knowing all her daughters were married. He was arrested early yesterday on the bigamy charge.

Not until late yesterday did the first Mrs. Hancock know her husband was under arrest in Kansas City, Kan. She said Hancock left home last Thursday, promising her that he would go to Wichita, Kan., to find work and that she had not seen him since. She said there had been no quarrel when he left and that he had always been kind and affectionate. She said they were married six years ago when he was 18.

SAYS ENGLAND, JAPAN WANT TO UNDERBUILD NAVY QUOTA

Congressman French, on Return from London, Urges Similar Policy for U. S.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Chairman French of the House Naval Appropriation Subcommittee said yesterday on his return from London that there was a strong sentiment in England and Japan against building up to the limits set by the London naval treaty.

He said Japan had decided on a program involving only about one-third of the construction possible under the pact and urged a similar policy for the United States and England.

"Many regard the treaty provisions as a maximum limitation and not as a mandate to build to capacity," he said. "There also is a feeling that if another conference is held in 1935, its accomplishments would be greater if the participating nations had not gone ahead with great construction programs in the intervening five years."

French said that if one nation initiated a maximum building program, the others probably would follow.

French, an Idaho Republican, added that a maximum program for this country would cost about $1,800,000,000 in the next five years. He predicted the naval construction appropriation of the United States for the next fiscal year would be limited to funds for the replacement of destroyers and submarines and possibly for building one or two cruisers.

THREE PERSONS HURT IN PANIC OF 600 IN MOVIE THEATER FIRE

Two Women and Girl Trampled by Crowd at Paulsboro, N. J.

PAULSBORO, N. J., Aug. 19.—About 600 men, women and children in Hills Theater were watching a movie last evening when a reel of film caught fire and smoke poured from the projection booth at the rear of the balcony. Two women and a girl were trampled in the rush as the fire spread to the balcony and the lights of the auditorium were dimmed by smoke. The jam at the exits became so great that those nearest could not open the doors.

Joseph Walters and Arthur Chambers, employees of a nearby hardware store, tore the doors from their hinges and the audience rushed into the street, leaving behind the three injured. Anna Moore, 26 years old, May Clarke, 9, whose legs were broken, and Rose Benvenuto, 30, who was painfully bruised.

Clarence Porch, operator of the projection machine, escaped injury.

although his shirt was burned off. The blaze did $20,000 damage.

NEWSPAPER EDITOR TESTIFIES BILLINGS, MOONEY ARE INNOCENT

Fremont Older Says Bombing in 1916 Was Work of German Agents.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Fremont Older, veteran newspaper editor, testifying before the State Supreme Court in Warren E. Billings' application for a pardon recommendation, yesterday expressed the opinion the 1916 preparedness parade bombing was the work of German agents seeking to keep the United States out of the World War.

Older reiterated his opinion Billings and Thomas J. Mooney, serving life sentences for the bombing, were innocent. He said an official investigation had been made of reports the bomb was originally intended to blow up a ship in the harbor and had been dropped at Stuart and Market streets when it threatened to explode prematurely.

The witness freely discussed his anti-preparedness views and told of sponsoring a mass meeting two days before the bombing in protest against the Preparedness day parade.

Robbed of $4 and Taxicab.

BEATS WIFE AND HER COUSIN WITH HAMMER

Richard Thompson Flees After Attack—Both Suffer Skull Fractures.

Mrs. Eunice Thompson, 55 years old, proprietor of a boarding house at 2211 North Tenth street, and her cousin, Byron Loomis, 63, were taken to the City Hospital today suffering with skull fractures inflicted with a hammer by Mrs. Thompson's husband, Richard, 56, who fled from the house. Mrs. Thompson said she knew of no reason for his act.

Mrs. Thompson said her husband came home intoxicated last night and retired quietly. Arising at 5:30, he came into the kitchen, seized the hammer and struck her on the head and shoulder.

Loomis, a farmer of Salem, Ill., visiting in St. Louis, sought to ward off Thompson's attack. "I'll kill you, too," said the husband and struck Loomis on the head.

The Thompsons have been married about four months. Last week, Mrs. Thompson said, her husband stopped their automobile on a country road and demanded, "Have you got anything to say before I choke you to death?" She persuaded him to drive home.

A boarder told police Thompson had acted peculiarly and appeared to be jealous of his wife.

ST. LOUIS LEGION TO FIGHT PAROLE SOUGHT BY SLAYER

Delegation to Ask State Convention to Oppose Leniency for Russell L. Miller.

St. Louis delegates to the State convention of the American Legion at Chillicothe, next week, have voted unanimously to oppose a parole for Russell L. Miller, former express company driver, saying a life prison term at Jefferson City for the murder, Dec. 6, 1925, of Mrs. Carrie Black, whom he met in a beer flat and who, according to his confession, had attempted to steal his wallet before he beat her to death with a lead pipe.

The legion's interest in the case is based on the fact that Mrs. Black had been selling paper flowers for the benefit of disabled war veterans the day she met Miller.

Miller's application for parole was heard by the State Penal Board at Jefferson City yesterday. No action was announced. Miller originally pleaded not guilty, but changed his plea when his lawyer found that 11 of 24 veniremen called for the trial had served in France.

Chief of Police Gerk opposed a parole for Miller on the ground that the murder was particularly brutal.

First our expert chefs whip their ingredients in the traditional way... thoroughly, exactly. And then they whip them completely again, for extra, incomparable flavor.

This double whipping is the final touch to a treasured old mayonnaise recipe from France. Such creaminess it gives! Such piquancy! Such utterly different deliciousness!

Little wonder millions of critical salad makers have made Hellmann's America's largest selling mayonnaise.

Costly Ingredients... Carefully selected, tested ingredients also play an important part in developing this remarkable creation.

Breakfast eggs, a secret blend of spices, pure vinegar, special salad oils. These ingredients cost us more, of course, but the added deliciousness they give our product makes them worth the price we pay.

Today... tonight try this Hellmann's Mayonnaise on your favorite salad. Taste the new flavor it brings to even a simple hearts-of-lettuce or sliced tomato. Note the enthusiastic comments of your family and friends!

Population Center at Point Predicted 58 Years Ago

Now Near Whitehall, Ind., but by Year 2000
It Should Be About 30 Miles
East of St. Louis.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A prediction made 58 years ago concerning the spot at which the 1920 center of population of the United States would be found was pointed out today by Clarence E. Batschelet, census geographer, as the most accurate estimate available at this stage of the computations.

Undertaking, on the basis of announced returns for the entire country, to trace the movement of that mythical balance point from its 1920 resting place, Batschelet said he could not now improve on the old figure.

In 1872, he said, a little known mathematician, Julius Erasmus Hilgard, estimated the center of population would remain close to the thirty-ninth parallel of latitude, and would move 126 miles westward between 1870 and 1900 and an added 88 miles between 1900 and 1920.

Hilgard further predicted that this hypothetical point would be about 30 miles east of St. Louis in 2000. This, he said, would be just about its ultimate westward point and the country could thereafter be depended on to maintain an approximation of equilibrium, with St. Louis as pivot.

In the 1872 prophecy, published in Scribner's Monthly, Hilgard made the first reliable computation of the center of population. "The Census Bureau followed two years later with official computations for all census years up to that time and each succeeding census has been tabulated as to population center with scientific accuracy.

From 1870 to 1900, the period in which Hilgard said the population center would advance 126 miles, he missed it by but six and five-tenths miles—it moved 119.5.

He based his prediction, not on the statistics at hand, but on a mathematical system. He figured actual advances from 1840 to 1870. Two out of three of these decades he regarded as not normal, for the first represented the gold rush to California and the third the mortality of the Civil War. He said it was safe to assume that disturbing causes of such magnitude could not occur again.

Hilgard then argued in this fashion: The geographical center of the United States map is just below the middle of the northern boundary of Kansas. Owing to the comparative infertility of the territory lying west of that meridian, "it is certain the center of population, when a permanent ratio of distribution shall have been reached, cannot be far west of the Mississippi River." And, since there is no great disparity of northern and southern zones it will be near the middle latitude of 39 degrees, Kenkel Also Speaks.

By the Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 18.—

The assertion that legislative adoption of extreme ideas of equal rights would put women in closer economic competition with men was made yesterday by Mrs. Sophia Catherine Wevering of Quincy, Ill., president of the National Women's Union, in an address at the convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America.

Willibald Elbner, New Ulm, Minn., the president, tracing the history of Central Verein said it was founded in 1885 by German Catholic immigrants to aid their countrymen on their arrival in America. It has grown to an organization of 250,000, he said.

Formal presentation of a cash gift to the Verein from its membership totaling $10,000 was on the night's program, along with an address by Frederick P. Kenkel, former St. Louis newspaper man, editor and winner of the Laetare medal awarded by Notre Dame University. The cash gift is part of a fund of $50,000 sought to rehabilitate buildings at St. Louis.

Davis Cup player who ranks third nationally, was the first of the American seeded players to come to grief.

Shields, who arrived here a day late from the Maine state singles play at Portland, was forced to play three matches to catch up with the field. He overcame Drin-and Whitebeck, New York, 6-1,

11-8, and Donald Strachan, Philadelphia, by scores of 6-1, 2-6,

6-2, before clashing with Doeg.

Wilmer Allison, Davis Cup doubles player, was the first player to enter the fourth round when he scored an easy 7-5, 6-3, 6-1 victory over Edward Jenkins of New York.

Jenkins qualified for his third round match on a default awarded when Fritz Marcur of Bethlehem,

Pa., withdrew from the tourney.

Gregory Mangin of Newark, seeded seventh on the list of 10 headed by

Rig Bill Tilden, the defending champion, followed Allison, No. 2, into the fourth bracket on the default that followed the withdrawals of Julius Seligson, New York, and

Judge Beaver of Gainesville, Ga.

Tilden tenderly nursed his injured hip during his 24-game match with John S. Milnes, husky

New York youngster, and by applying pressure at the proper time gained an easy victory by 7-5,

7-5, to move into the fourth round with the other leaders.

Johany Van Boy, another Davis

Cup player, reached that bracket manager.

Schmelzing is now under the management of Joe

FALCONS TO FACE JORDAN'S STRIKEOUT PITCHING IN MUNY CONTEST

SECOND-ROUND GAMES PROMISE LITTLE CLOSE COMPETITION

By Dent McKimling.

Although nine of the weaker clubs were eliminated in the first round of games, last Sunday, the Municipal Baseball Association's title series is still one step removed from the stage where strong, evenly matched clubs get together. Eight second-round games, to be played Saturday, promise another series of lopsided scores.

Following is the schedule:

UPPER HALF.

Tower Camp (Commercial League) vs. Gehkens (Concordia League), at O'Fallon Park Ground No. 1. Umpires—Bill Brady and A. L. Powers.

Freight Accounts (Mo.-Pac. League) vs. Frost Guldick (Mound City), at Forest Park Ground No. 8. Umpires—A. Knowles and W. Krueger.

Mississippi Glass (Mercantile) vs. St. Anthony's (Polish Catholic Union), at Fairground, Grounds No. 1. Umpires—F. McDonnell and V. Kemper.

Polish Falcons (Independent) vs. Sentinels (DeMolay), at Carondelet Park, Grounds No. 1. Umpires—Andy Hack and L. R. Eager.

LOWER HALF.

Red Goose (Y. M. C. A. Industrial No. 2) vs. Ebenzer (Evangelical), at Sherman Park, Ground No. 1. Umpires—J. J. Kelly and E. Kortum.

Spartans (Empire) vs. Omaha (Phoe. E. Wilson League), at Concordia Park, Ground No. 1. Umpires—Danny Barnard and Dick Wall.

McQuay-Norris (Y. M. C. A. Industrial No. 1) vs. Kingdom House (North Side), at Fairground Park, Grounds No. 2. Umpires—V. Sandusky and B. Meyer.

Finans (South Grand) vs. Salisbury (South Side), at Forest Park, Ground 12. Umpires—F. McShane and F. J. Woodward.

The third round will be played Sunday and not until then will the four seeded clubs be brought up against teams of nearly equal strength.

Tough Spot for Jordan.

Probably the most promising of the second round games is that between the Polish Falcons and the Sentinels. Were it not for the fact that Louis Jordan is pitching for the Sentinels they would not be given serious consideration, but this youngster has built himself up an unusual reputation. In one league game this season he struck out 22 batters. The DeMolay League, with its age limit of 20 years and other restrictions, is admittedly not so strong as the Independent, Empire and other open leagues, but the importance of a clever pitcher cannot be over estimated in amateur competition. If his teammates don't wobble under the strain of facing a better club, Jordan's pitching may be the deciding factor.

The Salebury, champions of Carondelet and one of the teams expected to reach the semifinals, play their first game on Saturday, opposing the Finans who last Sunday defeated the Bethlehem team. Barring form reversals, the following teams are expected to survive Saturday's round:

Tower Camp, Freight Accounts, Mississippi and Falcons in the upper half.

Red Goose, Spartans, McQuay-Norris and Salebury in the lower half.

For Junior Title.

With the intermediate championship of the Municipal Baseball Association at stake, the St. Peters and the Sophomores will meet at Forest Park, Grounds No. 8, Sunday. St. Peters won the championship of the Evangelical Intermediate League and the Sophomores took the pennant in the North Side Intermediate. The winner of the game will oppose the Guelker club of the Downtown Employed Boys' League who drew the first-round bye.

All games Saturday and Sunday are scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m.

CHAMPION BATTALINO GAINS VICTORY OVER VETERAN BUD TAYLOR

By the Associated Press.

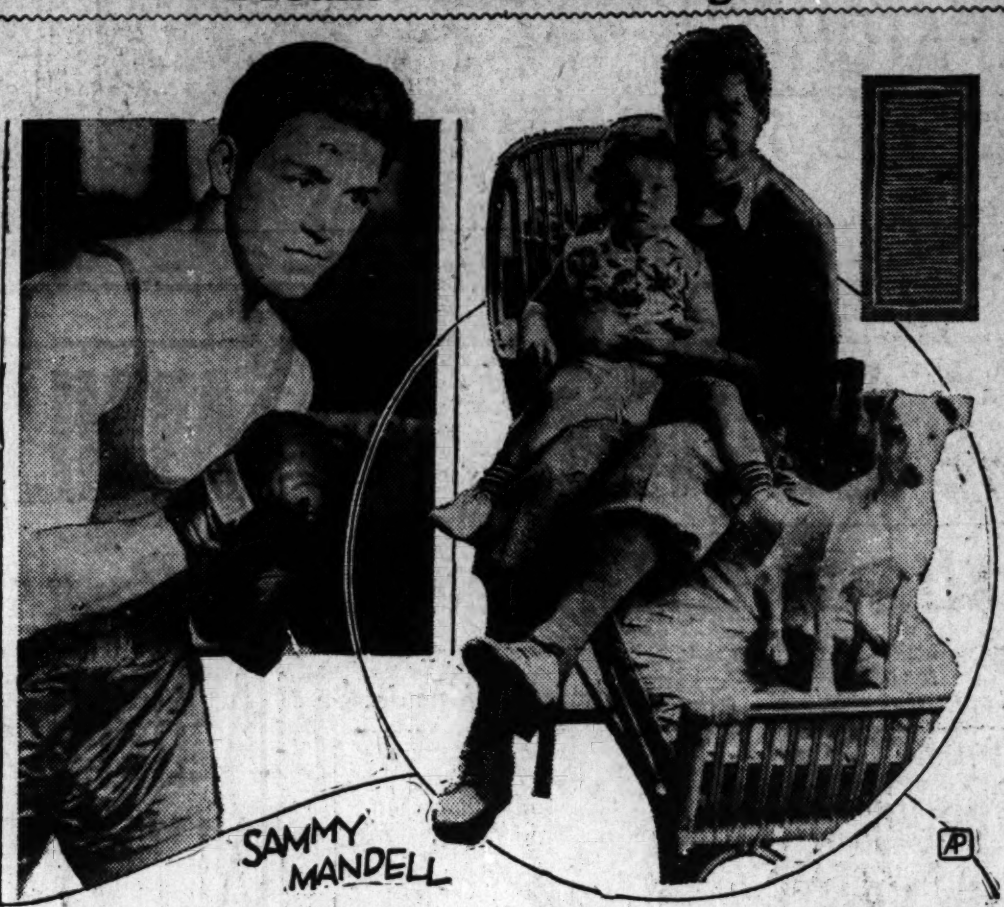

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 19.—Bud Battalino of Hartford, world's featherweight champion, last night outlasted Bud Taylor, late of Terre Haute, Ind., in a 10-round non-title fight.

Referee Gene Roman credited Battalino with eight rounds, Taylor with one, and ruled one even. The champion weighed 123½ pounds, while Taylor weighed 125.

Fans 15 in Night Game.

MUSKOGEE, Ok., Aug. 19.—Harvey Hutton, making his first home appearance in a Muskogee uniform, hurled sensationally here last night, limiting Springfield to four hits and fanning 15 men for an easy 14 to 3 victory. Thana-haus, Springfield third baseman, was the only Midget to give Hutton trouble. He hit two homers for his team's only runs.

Many Hard-Hitting Stars Available for Right Field Post on Ruth's All-America

Herman and Klein, Both Above .400 Mark, Lead Sluggers — Watkins of Cardinals in Race.

By Damon Kerby.

The race for the right-field post on Babe Ruth's All-America team this year appears to be the most open of any position on the team, with a half dozen or more Big Bertha's of baseball very much in the running.

Seven right fielders in the majors—counting Watkins of the Cardinals—were hitting .350 or above in the averages published in Sunday's Post-Dispatch. And an eighth right fielder who must be considered seriously for the job was hitting .344.

Only two points separated Babe Herman of the Robins and Chuck Klein of the Phillies. Herman leading with an average of .405. Then comes Watkins, .366; Paul Waner, .359; Cuyler, .357, etc.

With such an array of sluggers from which to choose, Ruth will have to draw a fine line indeed to separate the one sheep from the goats. It appears that any one of several players could be named without detracting from the team.

Klein leads at driving in runs. Klein, in the Sunday averages, was leading in runs driven in, with 124, while Herman, who topped him by two points in batting, was second with 100 runs batted in. Klein also had a slight lead in the number of runs scored, hits and home runs.

Right fielders of the Paul Waner and Cuyler type will have to be considered on account of their great fielding ability, even though they are not the sluggers that Herman and Klein are. Paul Waner and Cuyler turn in many a putout that would be an extra-base hit with a slower man playing right field.

And also know to a nicety how to play batters. Then there is Melvin Ott, the Giants' right fielder, who is a good fielder and throws strikes.

Rules Governing Babe Ruth's All-America Team Contest

THE contest is open to every one, except employees of the Post-Dispatch and their families.

Entries will close Aug. 31 at midnight and letters bearing postmark up to that time will be considered eligible.

The contestant naming the same players in the same positions and batting order as Babe Ruth wins the first prize; but in event no contestant duplicates Ruth's picks, the one nearest will be considered the winner.

In addition to naming the players to conform to those chosen by Ruth, contestants must arrange them in the same batting order as Babe Ruth. The Babe has agreed to place his choices in the order in which he thinks they should go to the plate.

An explanatory letter of not more than 250 words must accompany the selections and will be passed upon by the judges. This is as important as selecting the players. Babe himself will write an explanation of his choices. In event of a tie, excellence of the compositions would determine the winner. (Write on one side of the paper only and make your selections on a separate sheet.)

from the outfield. He cuts 'em down at the plate.

Herman, by the way, is not the dub outfielder this year that he was in previous seasons. His teammates used to tell him he ought to wear a fireman's helmet in right field for his own protection, but no more. He will never equal Waner or Cuyler as a fielder, but he has developed into a reliable fly chaser.

He made several sensational catches on the Robins' recent visit to Sportsman's Park.

Contest Closes Aug. 31.

The Babe Ruth All-America contest will close Aug. 31, at midnight. Prizes totaling $300, as well as 12 autographed Babe Ruth bats and 12 baseballs, autographed by the Babe, will be awarded. In case of ties the awards will be split on the merit of the essays, which must accompany each selection.

At a banquet from Carlinville, Ill., Harry B. Gresham, has selected the following team:

Frisch, Cardinals, second base. Lindstrom, Giants, third base. Terry, Giants, first base. Wilson, Cubs, center field. Simmons, Athletics, left field. Cochrane, Athletics, catcher. Jackson, Giants, shortstop. Hartnett, Cubs, catcher. Grove, Athletics, pitcher. W. Farrell, Indians, pitcher.

Herbst defeated Moore in a hectic battle last year. In the senior elimination tournament Moore outclassed all his opponents to become champion. Herbst did not compete because of a sudden illness.

In the junior tournament Herbst defeated all his opponents to become champion. In his last important match, Moore knocked out Elmer Pokinghorne, Western A. A. U. champion. Pokinghorne is a fighter of some ability, for fans saw him administer a neat lacing to Freddie Simmons on the last amateur card. Herbst's last victim was George Biehl of Sherman Park.

Pat (Red) Whelan, robust Olympian heavyweight, tackles Charley Shirley of the Elks' Club, in another bout.

BRADEN HEIR VICTOR IN PACING FEATURE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 19.—Braden Heir, owner by J. D. Hooper, Murfreesboro, Tenn., captured the $1000, 2:14 pace, opening feature of the Illinois State Fair program yesterday after three fast heats with Hollywood from the stable of George Loomis, Springfield.

In the fourth race, a 3-year-old trot, best two in three heats, Duchess from the string of George T. Penny, Highpoint, N. C., took first money. Duchess won the second heat after finishing third the first time out. Keno winning, George G. Stiles, Rome, Ga., Keno's owner, had entered his trotter in the $4000 trot tomorrow and agreed to award first money to the Penny entry rather than risk injuring Keno for the larger stake.

MANDELL SPLITS WITH MANAGER AFTER 9 YEARS

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—A contract with nearly a year to run notwithstanding, Eddie Kane has had his last cut with former Lightweight champion Sammy Mandell's earnings as far as Sammy is concerned.

After nine years of association, Mandell and Kane broke up yesterday, and apparently not on the best of terms.

Kane announced that he no longer was the Rockford shell's manager, but would collect his share of the latter's purses until July 6, 1931, when their contract expires.

Mandell last night said Kane would get no more money from him and that he would go to court to keep his money. Mandell also said that a statement by Kane in which the latter said the former lightweight king had earned $400,000 under his management was fiction.

"Kane is careless when talking about money," Mandell said, "and this $400,000 business is a sample. I didn't earn anywhere near that much, and I know I could have made more than I did if someone else had been handling my business."

Mandell said he would rest for another month, then would start a comeback attempt as a welterweight or junior welterweight.

CARLOS, NEW ITALIAN HEAVY, KNOCKED OUT IN ROUND BY MAYS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

Another foreign heavyweight threat came to the ring at Henderson's Bowl in Coney Island last night when Carlos, a new Italian, was knocked out by Armando Di Carlo in the sixth round of a scheduled 10-round bout. Di Carlo recently arrived here from Italy seeking ring fame and his rewards.

He shaped up like a fairly good boxer in the opening round, but as the battle wore on he gave evidence that he was no match for the experienced Jerseyite. After wearing down his Italian rival with solid left and right hooks to the body, Mays whipped over a snappy right to Di Carlo's jaw in the sixth round and the latter was knocked flat on his back. He stayed there until the referee called off the fatal 10 count. Mays weighed 183 pounds and Di Carlo 184½.

Primo Ubaldo knocked out Walter Sells in the first round of the semifinals scheduled for 10 sessions.

GERMAN GIANT WILL MEET CLINSTOCK HERE

Promoter Tom Packs last night announced that Jim Clinstock, huge Oklahoma Indian, has been selected to meet Hans Steinknecht, husky German star, in one of the supporting matches on the next local wrestling card which will be held Wednesday night, Aug. 27, at the University of Chicago arena.

Clinstock in his four matches here this summer, pinned Fred Grobmeier, Dick Davis and Matros Kerlinko, three worthy opponents, but was downed by Champion Jimmy London, Steinknecht has shown his wares in St. Louis. He is one of the biggest and most powerful grapplers in the country.

In the feature battle, Dick Spillier, who formerly was mat-champion, takes on Rudy Dusek, Omaha terror. They are contenders and the winner will enhance his chances of getting a title bout with London.

If he accepts the match, John Spellman of Providence, R. I., will be used in one of the supporting matches against an unknown foe.

CULOP HITS HIS 43d HOME RUN TO SET NEW ASSOCIATION RECORD

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Bunny Brief's nine-year-old American Association home run record has been ruined by the power of Nick Culop's war club.

The Minneapolis outfielder got his forty-third homer of the season off Sgt. George Connally in the first inning of the final game of the series with Toledo, to send into discard Brief's mark of 43, set in 1921 while a member of the Kansas City Blues.

WHILE SOX PURCHASE ATLANTA SHORTSTOP

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 19.—R. J. Spiller, business manager of the Atlanta club of the Southern Association, today announced the sale of Luke Appling, a shortstop, to the Chicago White Sox. Spiller said the purchase price for Appling included one player the White Sox will send to Atlanta next spring. Appling is playing his first season of professional baseball.

THOMPSON WORKS OUT FOR FREEMAN CONTEST

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Young Jack Thompson, world's welterweight champion, started training today for the first defense of his title against Tommy Freeman, Cleveland challenger, in the Cleveland baseball park Sept. 5. The fight will be 15 rounds to a referee's decision. Thompson plans to depart for Cleveland Friday to finish his conditioning.

Kimberlin Jones Joplin, Harry Kimberlin, elongated pitcher recently released by the Springfield Midgets, has been signed by the Joplin Miners.

Sidetracked.

BECAUSE he did not have $100,000 in his inside pocket Mike Malloy of Chicago lost the "big shot," Carnera vs. Sharkey, and enough profits to have enabled him to tell the world where to head in.

What Carnera lost was a quick chance to show whether he was really an impregnable fighting man or just an eighth of a ton of duty-free cheese.

The failure of the match effectively sidetracked Primo and today we find him touring the State of Ohio, with a match against a third-rate Italian fighter named Riccardo Bertazzola at Atlantic City as his next best bet.

Malloy Broadcasting.

MIQUE MALLOY, in a letter to this writer, explains the situation as follows: "Carnera left last night for an exhibition tour of Ohio. He meets Riccardo Bertazzola at Atlantic City Aug. 20. Before leaving here he agreed to meet Sharkey, Strickling or any man in the world.

"I have not even been notified by the Sharkey crowd that the Sharkey-Carnera match is off, but I have asked Strickling to meet Carnera here. If Sharkey fails to live up to his agreement.

"If Strickling dodges, too, I will put Carnera on in Chicago with best man available. Also may figure a St. Louis shot, with best man that will meet Carnera. You don't hear Von Peter's manager coming to the front with any such statement as he made last year about his willingness to face Carnera, do you? I told you then that he was four-flush.

"I hope to put on some good cards in your city soon and they will be real fights.

"It looks like the Madison Square Garden people are making another great mistake."

MIQUE MALLOY.

The Madison Square Garden officials made no mistake, from their own viewpoint. Mike, who is to keep their own enterprise in the forefront, if they had control of Carnera's matches they would be boosting him; but you really can't expect him to plug some other fellow's game.

About Bertazzola.

CARNERA's next opponent will cause him no worry. Bertazzola is just a European underdog, with little reputation for anything but size and tracheal power.

He is 25 years old and 6 feet 2 inches tall. He has had 27 fights in his career most of them against unknown Europeans. He has been in this country for two or three campaigns and such an egg as George Cook was able to gain a "w w" him. He lost this year to Johnny Risko and Ted Sandwina. Jim Maloney beat him last year. He lost on a foul to Phil Scott, in 1927 and even Knute Hansen trimmed him.

This fight will be a cake-walk for Carnera, apparently.

Not So Green.

SOME idea of the progress Carnera has made in fighting ability, fame and fortune may be gleaned from a letter written two years ago in Paris to Tom Andrews, internationally known fight critic, a copy of which Andrews has sent to the Post-Dispatch. It was from Leon See, Carnera's adviser, and in part reads:

My Dear Andrews—For several months I have been teaching and training a young giant here by the name of Carnera. He is from Italy, and was working here for practically nothing. You know I am not given to boasting, but really this fellow stands 6 feet 3 inches tall and weighs 280 pounds. He has the longest reach of any fighter living, is only 21 years old, and strong as a bull. He has taken to boxing wonderfully well, and is more clever than any of the real big fellows I have seen or trained. He will be world's champion some day, and don't forget what I am telling you. Can't you arrange to bring him over to America? If so, I will be glad to give you an interest in the tour or pay you for your work."

Andrews did not accept—which is too bad, for his chaperone would have avoided the pitfalls into which Duffy's guidance seems to have betrayed Carnera and See.

But the letter shows how a novice of twenty months ago has gained international notoriety, a lot of experience and plenty of money, with a good chance to fulfill the prediction of See.

About the "Sacrifice."

"PLEASE explain how the official scorer could have credited Wilson with a sacrifice fly in the fifth inning of Saturday's game, when Leach dropped his fly and Welch was charged with an error? Can a player be credited with a sacrifice when the ball was not caught?"

Yes, if in the opinion of the scorer, the runner on third would have tagged the catch been made. That one was discussed at a scorers' meeting and the agreement reached that it was unfair to penalize a batter because a fielder failed to make the catch.

That's a legitimate construction. There are other features of the sacrifice which are not so easily defended. One is giving a batter credit for a sacrifice simply because he advances a man from first to second, or from second to third on a fly. That all seems to be rewarding FAILURE for obviously the batter at such times is not trying to merely advance the runner a base, but to make a hit. A fly merely records his failure to do this. He is desired to sacrifice a man from second to third, he would want.

Here's another instance: If the bases are full the batter naturally is trying to avoid hitting into a double play. But should he do so, and a runner cross the plate from third, he is credited with having driven in a run.

Again: If there are two men on base, one on third, the batter is credited with driving in a run if the runner from third crosses the plate on a force-out. There may be reasons for such rulings; but they surely can't justify credits where failures have been registered.

CHARTER OAK PURSE WILL FEATURE GRAND CIRCUIT'S MEETING

By the Associated Press.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 19.—The fastest pacers and trotters in the country are expected to compete for purses totaling $25,000 during the eastern loop of the Grand Circuit meeting, which will get under way today at Charter Oak Park. The program calls for four days of racing.

Larkspur, of the Wedgmore Stables of Framingham, Mass., was favored to win the 3-year-old trot, which will open the meeting. The 2:14 pace, a handicap trot and an "overnight event," are also scheduled.

The historic Charter Oak park for a $5000 purse is on the program for Thursday.

With seven of the city's first 14 ranking tennis players participating, the Triple A class tournament is under way on the club's 12 courts. All of the local net luminaries but Wray Brown, district champion; Teddy Egeman of the St. Louis, co-holder of the district doubles crown with Brown, and Gustave Junior Borchert, who is competing in Eastern tournaments, are represented in the field of 14 players.

Among the players who will attract particular attention in the present tournament is Bill Bascom, the Yale University star, one of the younger local stars who has come to the front rapidly during the present season. Bascom, a turned from Terre Haute after winning the Wabash Valley title, the week before that the Yale made an excellent showing in the county tournament, going to the final with the loss of but four games and losing to Ted Dwyer, the municipal champion, only after taking the first two sets of their five-set match, 6-1, 6-0.

In the championship class of the tournament, which consists of 14 players, Karl Hodge, who won the semifinals of the district tournament where he was eliminated by Wray Brown, receives the first place in the seeded draw. Hodge is followed by Bill Bascom, Herb Weinstein and Ed Serrano.

In the championship doubles the veteran team of Karl Kamman and Charley Barnes were seeded first. Herb Steideman and Bill Bascom, the new combination which upset them by going to the semifinals in the district tournament, is seeded second. These teams are followed by Weinstein and Smith and Serrano and Serrano.

The tournament is divided into four classes, championship, class A, class B and class C.

Class A has furnished the most activity since the tournament started Saturday. In the feature matches of that division, Herb Bortler upset Dr. Ray Hollingshead, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3. Robert Hereford won from Syl Agastie, 6-1, 6-0, and Oscar Reid, hard-driving county player, defeated Harvey Smith, 10-8, 6-2. Earl Dobson, former Municipal Park star, eliminated one of the strongest players in the class A division when he defeated Bert Barri, runner-up in the veterans' tournament earlier in the year, 6-3, 6-1.

In an exciting class A doubles match, George Finger and Flanagan defeated Hereford and Reid, the champions of Ferguson, 11-9, 6-2.

In the only championship singles match played so far, Charles McMillan's steadiness won out over the best of San Francisco, who was defeated by McMillan, 6-4, 6-2.

All first-round matches will be defaulted if they are not completed by Friday afternoon.

Lohman, Knost's Rival, Due Today

Joe Lohman, Toledo heavyweight, who defeated Duke Knost, 205-pound local mauler, in the main 10-round match on the Walter Hatfield American Legion Post professional boxing card last night at the Battery A outdoor arena, is due to work out today at a local gymnasium.

Knost, who will be seeking his fifth straight knockout, already has completed his training. In his department, one of the big laughs here is that the batter is credited with having driven in a run whenever a base on balls, with the socks loaded, forces a runner across the plate. In other words, the pitcher's failure to pitch properly is scored as a credit for the batter, who did nothing.

Here's another instance: If the bases are full the batter naturally is trying to avoid hitting into a double play. But should he do so, and a runner cross the plate from third, he is credited with having driven in a run.

Again: If there are two men on base, one on third, the batter is credited with driving in a run if the runner from third crosses the plate on a force-out. There may be reasons for such rulings; but they surely can't justify credits where failures have been registered.

MOTOR COACH EXHIBITION

Vehicles Shown on Twelfth Boulevard by Pickwick Firm.

Differences between modern motor coaches and those of 30 years ago, both in body style and motor features, are shown in an exhibit opened today on Twelfth boulevard, between Olive and Locust streets, by the Pickwick Greyhound Lines, operators of a motor coach system.

One is a former "rubberneck wagon" used for sightseeing in New York City's Chinatown, in Chicago and New Orleans. Built in 1901, it has run more than 1,000,000 miles. It is owned by the Rosenwald Industrial Museum of Chicago. The other bus is a Pickwick coach, equipped with sleeping compartments for 26 passengers.

SETS JUNIOR FLIGHT RECORD ACROSS U. S.

Schneider Completes Trip—Actual Time in Air 29 Hours 41 Minutes.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 19.—An 18-year-old Jersey City youth, Eddie Schneider, today held the junior record for the fastest westward crossing of the United States.

Landing at the municipal airport at dusk yesterday, the young aviator completed his transcontinental crossing in a total flying time of 29 hours, 41 minutes, just 4 hours 23 minutes less than required by the former record holder, the late Frank Goldsborough of New York.

Schneider left Westfield, N. J., Aug. 14, flying only during the day time. He said he experienced much stormy weather along the route and damaged his plane slightly once when he struck a tree in landing at Altona, Pa.

Leaving Albuquerque, N. M., yesterday morning, Schneider stopped at Holbrook, Ariz., for fuel at noon, taking off shortly afterward for Los Angeles. At Ontario, near his goal, he ran into fog and landed for weather reports.

Assured visibility was good over Los Angeles, Schneider took off again, but lost his bearings before he cleared the mists and landed at Long Beach municipal airport.

Uncertain where he was, he asked an airport attendant and was told he was at "the municipal airport." The answer led Schneider to think he had reached his destination. Several minutes later he discovered his error.

Upon reaching Los Angeles municipal airport Schneider took no chance of making a similar mistake. To 50 persons who ran out to meet him he shouted:

"I want to know for sure before I cut off my motor. Is this the Los Angeles municipal airport?"

Receiving an affirmative answer, Schneider got out of his plane. He is undecided when he will start back in an effort to beat the eastward record of 28 hours, 18 minutes, also set by Goldsborough.

RIVAL CHAMBERS OF DEPUTIES TO BE ORGANIZED IN MEXICO

One Group Claims Election, but Was Excluded From Congress.

By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 19.—The newspaper Excelsior says two Chambers of Deputies—one legal and the other illegal—will be installed in Mexico City on Sept. 1, the date for the new chamber to convene.

One will meet in the usual quarters and the other in El Teatro Italo. At the latter meeting will be 150 men who claim election in the recent nation-wide poll, but who were excluded from the preliminary session of the Mexican Congress last week because of faulty credentials. This group is composed principally of men who ran in opposition to candidates of the National Revolutionary Party.

If two Chambers do meet it will devolve upon President Ortiz Rubio to decide which is legal.

An audit of the accounts of George B. Aleman, general agent of the National Railways of Mexico, with offices in the Railway Exchange Building, who shot and killed himself Aug. 6, last, has been completed by F. Hernandez of Mexico City, traveling auditor of the lines.

Hernandez will submit his report to J. D. Noriega, traffic manager. Aleman left a note that he had received a telephone message indicating he was faced with problems he could not solve.

His successor here has not been appointed. F. P. Delfoyon, general agent at New York, is supervising the work in this area. The St. Louis office, next to the New York office, is regarded as the most important post maintained by the Mexican Railways in the United States.

Some Mail Pilots, Flying at Night, Get $850, Survey Shows.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Average monthly wages for airplane pilots of the highest capability range around $550. The aeronautics branch of the Commerce Department ascertained this by a survey of payrolls of air mail and passenger carrying concerns for the first six months of 1930 and the last half of 1929. The pilots in this service are holders of the highest class of license obtained only after much experience and training.

In almost all cases earnings of such pilots are based on mileage flown. The compilations indicated the average pilot in these services received the straight salary averaging $189 a month and, in addition, 6 cents a mile for day flying and 10 cents a mile for night flying. The top wages of $850 were received by a group of mail pilots flying at night.

Mechanics servicing planes and engines on air routes, the compilation showed, averaged during the same period $157 a month. The average wage running around 75 cents an hour.

PLAN TO SELL 200,000 DAIRY SHOW TICKETS

Campaign to Dispose of Them in Advance Opened by Business Men.

Civic and business leaders of St. Louis, members of a committee of 250 headed by Charles E. Williams, pledged their support last night to secure an advance sale of 200,000 tickets for the National Dairy Show, to be held in the Arena Oct. 11 to 19. The campaign was formally opened at a dinner at the Racquet Club, called by Harold M. Bixby, Benjamin G. Brinkman, Willard Cox, F. W. A. Vesper, Edward A. Faust and Williams.

So important a factor in the business life of St. Louis has the National Dairy Show become that every employer in the metropolitan area will be asked to underwrite the advance sale of tickets equal in number to his employees. Dearest business conditions and the unprecedented drought, which is expected to reduce the farmer's attendance at this year's show, were cited as reasons why St. Louis business interests should get behind the show so that it may be retained for St. Louis in future years.

Charles M. Hay, attorney, and Frank Z. Salomon, representing the Associated Retailers, pointed out that the National Dairy Show represents the greatest single industry in America. Figures were cited showing that the annual income from dairy products is $4,000,000,000 and the show itself actually brings to St. Louis annually thousands of dollars.

The Associated Retailers have announced their intention of putting every effort into the campaign.

Special advertising matter will be used by the retailers, tickets will be placed on sale in booths in the store and every employee will be urged to visit the show.

Special committees have been appointed to push the ticket sale among various groups in the city. These include Hiram G. Martin, Chamber of Commerce; Lon Sanders, speakers' bureau; Dan Hyland, service clubs; Jules R. Field and N. L. Weston, municipal teams; Arthur A. Blumeyer, educational; K. F. Niemoeller, Associated Retailers.

In order to stimulate the advance sale, announcement was made that while the regular price of admission of 50 cents each for the National Dairy Show and the Horse Show, which will be held in connection with it, would be charged, a special rate of 50 cents for the two shows would be offered to St. Louisans. Last year the total attendance was 280,000, of whom 200,000 were from out of the city.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 19.—A divorce was granted to Mrs. Marjorie Campbell Winton here today from Alexander Winton, 70 years old, pioneer Cleveland auto manufacturer. Winton did not contest the action.

Mrs. Winton, widely known as a benefactor of the American Indians, is the composer of two operas, "Love's Whirling Wheel" and "The Seminole." She married the former automobile manufacturer in 1927. Later, Winton said he was disgusted with his wife's activities in behalf of the Indians. Restoration of Mrs. Winton's maiden name was authorized by the court and authorities obtained a settlement of property.

Now the most successful oil for a quarter century has ## a real power-mate

in Mobilgas Ethyl—the world's most successful gasoline

Every man knows that if he eats everything he likes, and as much as he likes—in his youth he may be strong enough to show no ill effects, but some day he must pay for his intemperance.

Every man should know that if he pours all kinds of oils and gasolines thoughtlessly into his motor—the car will run, but in the end there will be costly, useless repairs and heavy depreciation. Not only that but, in the meantime, he has to put up with "old-car" performance instead of the superb "youthful" performance which the maker built into his car! The proven way to car satisfaction is to find the one best oil and the one best gasoline for his motor—and stick to them.

In this connection consider: For more than a quarter-century the world's most successful quality motor oil has been Mobiloil. In order to provide a fit power-mate, the makers of Mobiloil have written the specifications of Mobilgas Ethyl. Surely no gasoline has higher authority.

Literally millions of motorists have become life converts to Mobiloil and Mobilgas Ethyl—have dismissed their last motoring care! Why not you?

Such a Proposal Places Mac-

Hole and May Cause
General Election.

By JOHN L. BALDERSTON,
London Correspondent of the Post-
Dispatch and New York World.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Mahatma Gandhi, from his prison cell in India, has offered, on conditions, to call off the non-co-operative movement and end the passive resistance of his followers.

Gandhi's proposal has been made to the Viceroy Lord Irwin and sent by him to the Government here. The Mahatma made it after consultation with other imprisoned leaders of his party and it is regarded here as representing the policy of the whole Congress party.

Gandhi says he recognizes that the strength of the Conservative and Liberal opposition to home rule for India will make it impossible for the round table conference set for November in London, to grant India dominion status.

However, the British Labor Government and the Viceroy will definitely declare that they adopt dominion status as their aim and offer to the Government here, provided the Government will declare an amnesty and set free all political prisoners.

Gandhi's declaration, it is understood, makes it clear that no personal pledges of support from the Viceroy or Prime Minister will do; he demands a declaration of Government policy in so far as the Government is able to carry it into effect.

The gist of this proposal is yet known here only in an extremely limited circle, but it is clear that the description given to the Viceroy's quarter as "diabolically clever" will be widely echoed here and the rank and file of their parties will repudiate Gandhi's suggestion, but he has placed the MacDonald Government in a hole.

Here he is committed by pre-election pledges to dominion status for India and the Viceroy himself promised this last year as Britain's goal.

Gandhi now simply asks MacDonald and Irwin to commit the Government in the coming conference to this aim and promises a settlement if they will do so.

For Labor to make such a pledge would create a political storm and might precipitate a general election here.

Mrs. Blair Discouraged Over Women in Politics

Missouri Leader's Pessimistic View Included in Compendium Prepared for Tenth Anniversary of Suffrage.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, who campaigned for suffrage in Missouri back in 1914, is "frankly quite discouraged about women in politics." She made this known today in her contribution to a compendium of opinions on women and the ballot gathered by the League of Women Voters to mark the tenth anniversary of woman suffrage in America.

The compendium is to be published for the anniversary on Aug. 26, of the signing by former Secretary of State Cady of the proclamation that actually culminated the movement.

"I am afraid," Mrs. Blair said, "the suffragists have made the same mistake as the temperance group. Both of them thought that with their victory they had only to defend their position; and so, just as the Women's Christian Temperance Union stopped its educational work for temperance and devoted itself to claiming the eighteenth amendment worked, so the suffragists stopped their educational work of convincing people that women had a right to equality and devoted themselves to other interests."

Mrs. Raymond Brown, editor of the Woman's Journal, gave her opinion that "both men and women are questioning Government processes and are watching the actions of elected officials as they never used to do," and that "political party committees and candidates have frequently been embarrassed and sometimes incensed at the questions women have showered on them."

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the Governor of New York, said women had made "a contribution to better government," and that "wherever they have taken part in local politics, there is no question but what the general standards have gone up. She contended that the percentage of those who use their suffrage is probably about equal now to the percentage of men who use theirs."

Dr. W. A. Nelson, president of Smith College, put into words what many who were consulted seemed to feel:

He said: "It is a commonplace that no great political change produces all the evil its opponents predicted or all the good its supporters hoped for."

In his observation, he added, fears of the opponents of women's suffrage "have been realized hardly at all," while the high hopes of its supporters "are being gradually but steadily fulfilled."

SHOUSE ATTACKS RECORD OF G. O. P., TILSON ANSWERS

Democratic Chairman's Criticism Centers on Tariff Bill, Farm Relief and Business Depression.

CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN OPENS

Republican House Leader
Says Opponent "Gloats
Over Country's Distress
Without Offering Cure."

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The fight for control of Congress is on in earnest with leading spokesmen of the Republican and Democratic parties recording their views of the general issues on which the contests are to be decided at the November elections.

Joett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic National Executive Committee, placed the Democratic side before the country in a radio address last night, in which the administration was charged with errors both of omission and commission. An immediate defense and counter-attack was issued in a statement to the press by John Q. Tilson of Connecticut, Republican floor leader in the House of Representatives.

Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican National Committee, already was on record with condemnation of the Democratic position.

Shouse's attack centered on the tariff bill, farm relief and business depression. President Hoover, in Shouse's speech, was made to share responsibility with Congress for the farm taken by the tariff bill. He was singled out also for individual criticism in connection with the farm relief legislation in advance of the depression which set in last fall.

"Gloating Over Distress," Tilson termed the Democratic speech "an amazing collection of half truths, misstatements, abuse and criticism."

Shouse, said Tilson, "Failed to suggest a cure for a single thing which he criticized. Instead of offering a constructive program as his listeners had every right to expect him to do at this time, he presented the regrettable spectacle of the at least verbal leader of the political party literally gloating over the economic distress of the country."

The Democratic leader asserted that the people of the country "are arising to a political overthrow that may assume the proportions of a cataclysm."

Tilson replied that overthrow of the Republican party would be a "cataclysm" because the party had "a definite, well considered administrative and legislative program which it is carrying forward to completion despite the determined obstructive tactics of the Democrats."

"Locked the Door Too Late," Shouse said farm products had declined in price steadily since passage of the farm act; he contrasted the Hoover 1928 campaign speeches assuring continuation of prosperity under Republican rule, with the unemployment and depressed business obtaining within the year. He blamed the President for not warning against speculation while Secretary of Commerce and President.

Conceding that after the crash Mr. Hoover "did perhaps as any man could to try to effect an adjustment of conditions," Shouse observed that "history is apt to record that he locked the barn door after the horse was stolen."

He said President Hoover could have checked the tariff "raid" at any time during the long period the revision was under Congressional consideration, but had failed to speak the word which would have "corrected the intolerable features of this unholy and excruciating piece of legislation."

Puntling to Shouse's assertion that the Democrats would endeavor to respond to the people's "cries of desperation" for relief from present conditions, Tilson challenged the opposition leaders to show how they would "endeavor to respond."

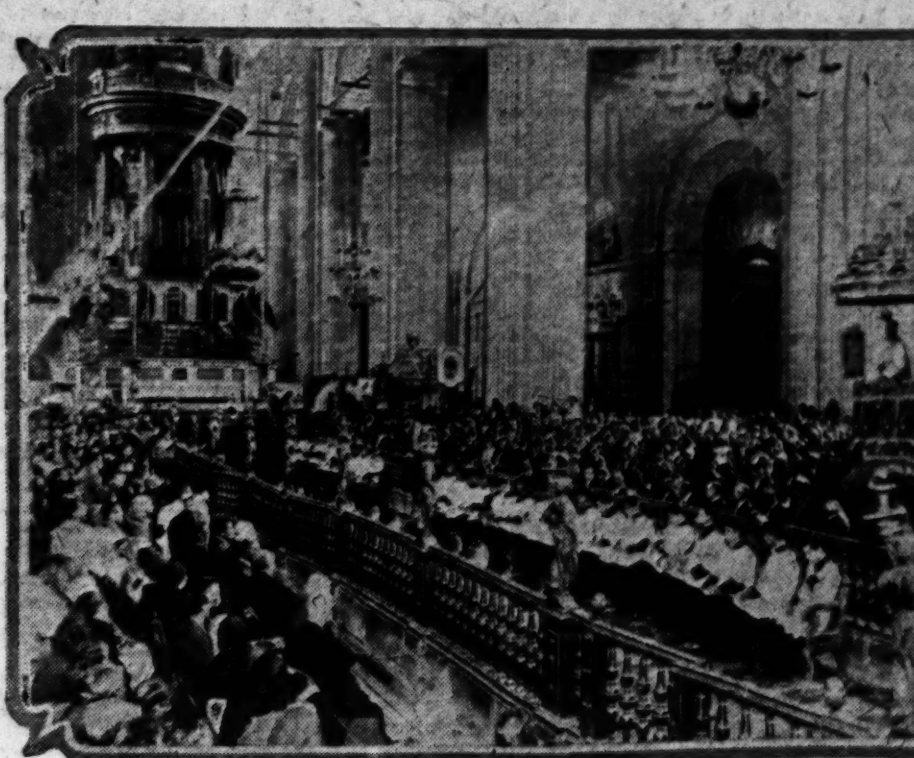

"Will a sympathetic and understanding ear cure the ills of which Mr. Shouse complains," he asked, "if so, how?"

"These are pertinent questions to which the voters certainly have the right to an answer in this campaign."

FRENCH TOURISTS FIRED ON BY ITALIAN BORDER GUARDS

Party of Eight Had Crossed Line
Indiscreetly, Petit Parisien
Reports.

Copyright, 1930, by the Press and Publishing Co. (the New York World and Post-Dispatch).

PARIS, Aug. 19.—In the upper valley of the Boreon and Madone, on the Franco-Italian frontier, eight French tourists were fired on recently by Italian border guards and roughly handled by the commander of the frontier guards for unwittingly crossing the border, according to the Nice correspondent of Petit Parisien.

The tourists, four men and four women from St. Martin de Yussoub, seeing a hotel in the near distance walked toward it with the intention of lunching there. There was nothing to indicate that they were crossing the frontier until shots drove them to take refuge behind trees as several carabinieri rushed down the mountain side.

The tourists threw up their hands and the party was led before the local commander, who, according to the Petit Parisien, handled them roughly and insulted them before they were finally allowed to return to France.

The region in which the incident is reported to have taken place is a favorite one for refugees from Fascist rule seeking to pass into France as the boundary line, as arranged in 1929, does not follow natural frontiers, having been drawn to fit the royal Italian shooting reserve.

THREE GLIDERS DAMAGED AT INTERNATIONAL CONTESTS

One Machine Wrecked at Wasserkuppe, Germany; Nobody Is Injured.

WASSERKUPPE, Germany, Aug. 19.—Three gliders crashed yesterday at the international meet in the Rhoen Mountains. No pilots were injured, but one glider was wrecked.

The machine flown by Pilot Meyer of Aix-la-Chapelle, former holder of the Rhoen endurance record, swooped too low over a wide ditch, dived into the opposite bank and was demolished.

Robert Kronfeld, Austrian glider champion, attempting to avoid hitting two spectators, was forced to head his machine into a rock pile. One of his wings was snapped off.

Another flyer skimming too low over a post, sheared off the left wing of his plane.

Attention of the Lodelinart works, whose annual production is more than 500,000 square yards of glass, had hitherto prevented formation of the syndicate.

ENGLAND SAYS IT WILL FORM TRANS-ATLANTIC AIR LINE

Government Mentions Its Intention on Year-Round Service in Memorandum.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 19.—England's intention of eventually establishing a regular trans-Atlantic air service between Cardington, Montreal and New York is mentioned in an air ministry memorandum.

When sufficient experience has been accumulated with the airships R-100 and R-101, it is intended to organize the service, says the memorandum.

The routes for the year-round service will vary according to the season and the weather. The main ones will be the northern route, by way of Cape Farewell, Greenland, the direct route by way of Newfoundland and the southern route by way of the Azores. Another route to Winnipeg and Vancouver by way of the Foroe Islands, Iceland and Greenland, is under consideration.

Reference is made to American schemes for floating airmails across the Atlantic, but no comment is given.

SITUATION SERIOUS IN 300 COUNTIES

Executive Says Real Burden
Is Not Expected to Reach
Farmers Before Next Winter.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Secretary of Agriculture Hyde was appointed by President Hoover today as chairman of the National Drouth Relief Committee.

Mr. Hoover in announcing the Hyde appointment, said approximately 300 counties were now embraced within the drouth region where conditions are regarded by relief officials as serious. The real burden confronting the stricken farmers, he said, was not expected to be reached before next winter. His statement said latest reports continue to show the drouth was severe and that rains had improved conditions only in non-acute areas.

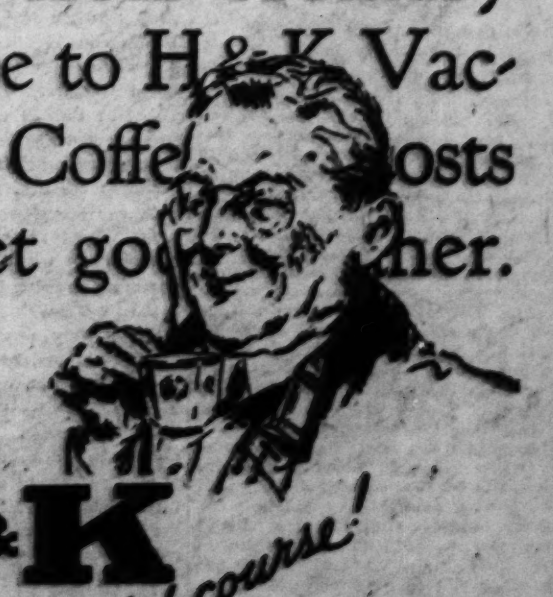

Bestor Also on Committee.
The head of the Agriculture Department already has moved to assure farmers they will get the benefit of reductions made on freight shipments of grain in various sections, having instructed county agents in affected regions to watch and report on the situation. The National Relief Committee is to coordinate Federal activities for cooperation with the groups being set up in stricken states.

The movement of feed for livestock into drouth-stricken areas will receive immediate attention. The Agriculture Department agents have been ordered by Hyde to look to the interests of the farmer in watching application of the reduced shipping rates.

Other members of the National Committee will be Chairman Legge of the Federal Farm Board, H. Paul Bestor of St. Louis, Federal Farm Loan Commissioner; Roy A. Young, governor of the Federal Reserve Board; John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross; R. H. Ashton, president of the American Railway Association; Orden Mills, Undersecretary of the Treasury, and Henry M. Robinson.

GIRL, 11, SHOPLIFTER
AND EXPERT BURGLAR

Enters Newark, N. J., Apartment by Climbing Down Fire Escape From Roof.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 19.—A small girl fell into the hands of Newark police yesterday and with her calm admission that at the age of 11 she is adept at shoplifting and burglary, presented Newark correction authorities with a problem in juvenile delinquency.

Two weeks ago the girl was seen climbing on the fire escape of the large apartment building, in which a series of petty thefts have been reported recently, and was warned by the superintendent, James Kustura, to stay away. Yesterday when Kustura saw her climb down the fire escape from the roof and enter a fifth floor apartment he notified police headquarters. Two detectives found the girl ransacking a bureau.

She made no attempt to deny her guilt, but gave police a full account of her induction into the business of thievery, and readily admitted six burglaries in the apartment house.

Two years ago, when she was 9, a girl of 14 took her to a 5 and 10-cent store and showed her how to be a shoplifter, she said. She devised a scheme for entering apartments. She would ring a door bell, and if there was an answer she said she was looking for work, taking care of a baby. If there were no answer she tried to get to the roof and then down to the apartment.

Her object always was cash. Jewelry and other articles did not attract her.

The girl was taken to the Parental Home for the night, charged with juvenile delinquency.

The girl said she was the youngest of five children and had robbed to help support the family. She told her mother she got the money by caring for babies.

DESERT INDIANS CELEBRATE

PAGEANT AT ALBUQUERQUE

Tribes Mingle With Cowboys and Urban Dwellers at 4-Day Festival.

By the Associated Press.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 19.—Hundreds of Indians from the desert thronged Albuquerque yesterday for the annual pageant "The First American." The gaudy blankets of the Navajos, brilliant costumes of Spanish grandees and cavaliers, bright shawls of senoras and senoritas added color to the four-day celebration.

Booted horsemen from the cattle trails and desert waterholes mingled with tenderfeet of distant cities along the line of march where Gov. Richard G. Dillon led a parade of 1200 Indians. Zunis, Pueblos, Hopis, Navajos and all other desert tribes were represented by the chiefs, medicine men, braves and squaws gathered for the celebration.

Spanish conquistadores, represented by their descendants, had a place in the spectacular procession. The pageant was opened informally Sunday night with the Montezuma ball. Ceremonial dances by the Indians were on the program.

MRS. ADELE KAHLE MUST PAY
$65,143 DELINQUENCY TAX

Federal Court of Appeals Rules Against Widow of Stove Manufacturer.

The Federal Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed a finding of the Board of Tax Appeals under which Mrs. Adele Kahle, widow of a stove manufacturer, formerly of Kirkwood, is ordered to pay $65,143 delinquent income taxes covering the years from 1918 to 1925, when her property was held by the Allen Property Custodian.

Mrs. Kahle now lives in Germany. While the property, chiefly securities, was in custody, no taxes were assessed against it. It was not until December, 1925, that a Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue requested Mrs. Kahle's attorney to prepare returns. When the attorney failed to comply, the Deputy made out the returns. His act was protested before the Board of Tax Appeals, which upheld him. Mrs. Kahle asked for a review by the Court of Appeals.

The opinion was written by Federal Judge A. K. Gardner.

THEFT OF AIRPLANE HELD VIOLATION OF DYER ACT

U. S. Court of Appeals at Denver So Rules in Case From Oklahoma.

By the Associated Press.
DENVER, Colo., Aug. 19.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals held yesterday that interstate transportation of a stolen airplane constitutes violation of the Dyer act, hitherto applied only to automobile thefts. Federal officials said it was the first such construction placed on the Dyer act by the Court of Appeals.

The opinion was written by Judge Orie L. Phillips of New Mexico and concurred in by Judge George T. McDermott of Kansas. Judge John H. Cotterill of Oklahoma dissented. The decision upheld the Western Oklahoma Federal District Court in the case of William M. McBoyle, sentenced to three years imprisonment and fined $2000.

HYDE SELECTED TO HEAD HOOPER DROUTH BOARD

President of the First National Bank of Los Angeles.
President's Statement.
"In accordance with the conclusions of my conference with the Governors," the President's statement said, "I appointed Secretary Hyde to undertake co-ordination between Federal and State activities as chairman of the National Drouth Committee."

After naming the members of this committee, he said: "These members from the different national organizations will appoint alternate or additional members from those agencies from time to time to undertake the special duties before the committee. Mr. Robinson has consented to serve on the committee for purposes of co-ordinating Federal with State and private credit activities. The headquarter committee of the National Drouth Relief Committee are being set up in the Department of Agriculture.

"The Governors of the various States are moving rapidly in the creation of their organizations. The Governors of Illinois and Virginia have reported their committees, comprising men of high leadership in their States.

"These committees are already actively creating their county organizations.

Relief Needed in Winter.
"Continuing reports confirm the severity of the situation and the inevitability of distress over the winter in the acutely affected counties, which now apparently number something over 300.

"The rains of the last few days have stemmed the spread of the drouth and greatly improved the situation outside of the acutely affected area. In those areas the destruction of crops has proceeded to a point that is beyond any great degree of recovery, although pasturage should improve.

"It must be borne in mind that from a relief point of view the burden of the problem in the acute area will show very much more vividly over the winter than at the present moment.

"I have received from all sections of the drouth area high appreciation of the railways for their prompt and constructive action. It is a notable act of courageous co-operation and has been undertaken in the face of seriously reduced incomes due to the depression. It emphasizes the public interest of maintaining the strength and financial stability of our railways that they shall be able to co-operate in times of national difficulty.

"In order that there may be no failure to cover any case of distress pending the time when the states have completed their detailed organization, the Red Cross has given instructions to all their county agencies to take care of the situation.

Hyde also announced that Southern railroads would put into effect emergency rates for the parched belt today. He said the Western railroads were expected to take similar action in a few days. The rates, amounting to 50 per cent on livestock and feedstuffs, are already operating in the East.

The Weather Bureau said rains had given "substantial relief" in many sections. Additional rains were forecast for today in the territory between the Mississippi River and the Rocky Mountains. J. E. Kinner, agriculture meteorologist, said pastures in many sections were revived, truck crops and gardens aided, and late corn, particularly in the northern portions of the belt, benefited.

FOUR DROWNED WHEN FERRY SINKS IN CONNECTICUT RIVER

By the Associated Press.

WESTMORELAND, N. H., Aug. 19.—Divers today were endeavoring to recover the bodies of four persons, drowned in the sinking of an old flat-bottomed cable ferry in the Connecticut River near here last night.

Ray Abstin, 30 years old, of East Putney, Vt., his wife, their baby daughter, and William Clark, a boarder at the Abstin home, were those drowned. They were trapped in one of the two automobiles crossing from this town to East Putney when the ferry sank. The automobile was found at the bottom of the river.

An occupant of the second automobile, a foot passenger, and the 75-year-old operator of the ferry, swam to safety.

Six prisoners from the Westmoreland House of Correction responded to a quest for divers.

30 LASHES FOR BANK ROBBERS

Two Men Also Get Eight Years Each in Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 19.—Less than 24 hours after the robbery of a branch of the Royal Bank, John Nevins and Norman Sherratt, taxicab and truck drivers of Toronto, pleaded guilty here today and also admitted stealing an automobile in which they got away. Each was sentenced to six years in prison and to receive 30 lashes on the robbery charge, and to two years for the car theft. About $3000 stolen from the bank was recovered.

By-Products From Seal Bodies. Special to the Post-Dispatch. DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska.—Uncle Sam has gone into the business of making by-products from the carcasses of fur seals slaughtered on the Pribilof Islands. Oil and fertilizer will be prepared by special machinery installed this summer. Every year the thousands of seal bodies left after pelting were food for foxes and sea birds.

PRIMARY VOTE CORRECTION

E. C. Thompson Nominated in Ferguson, Official Count Shows. Official tabulation of votes in the recent primary election shows that Edwin C. Thompson won the Republican nomination for Justice of the Peace at Ferguson, defeating Emory W. Chase, 2653 to 1382. Unofficial returns had reversed the result, indicating that Chase had won, 1926 to 1892.

Senator Fess on Prohibition.

By the Associated Press. DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 19.—Dwight W. Morrow, Republican nominee for Senator from New Jersey, could have received as large a majority if he had campaigned on a dry instead of a wet platform, Senator Simon D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican National Committee, said here yesterday. Senator Fess said: "Prohibition is not an issue in the Republican party, and I don't believe it is in the Democratic party."

POLICE CLEANING UP ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

Robbery of Visitors Inspires Mayor to Order Undesirables Out of Town. Special to the Post-Dispatch. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 19.—To date 133 undesirables have been driven out of the city in a police clean-up campaign. Of their own accord, it is estimated that not fewer than 1000 men and women of doubtful occupations, if not with definite criminal records, have left the city since the campaign began a few days ago, while scores of dives, large and small, are closed.

Harry Bacharach, Millionaire Mayor of the City, Outlined His Policy Today.

"If it is the only thing I accomplish during my administration," he said, "I will make our Police Department so efficient that the city will be known all over the country as a good place for crooks and undesirables to stay away from."

"Vice, I presume, we will always have with us. But it won't be protected vice. It won't be flaunted in your face or in the face of your wife and children. If you want it you will have to hunt for it. It won't hunt you. The city is going to be safe for residents and visitors."

Fully as uncomfortable as the crooks of both sexes are members of the police department who, as the Mayor puts it, "have been lax in their work."

There are approximately 400 men in the police department. Of this number the jobs of perhaps 100 hang on the reports to be made by private detectives, paid by Bacharach out of his own pocket.

"The weakest part of our police service at the present time is among superior officers and the members of the Detective Bureau," said the Mayor. "These, as you know, are protected by the tenure of office act, something akin to civil service. They are either going to get on their toes and do first-class work or make room for youngsters who will."

The cleanup was inspired by a large number of house robberies, extortion in resorts coupled, in many cases, with serious assaults where a victim either lacked funds to pay the check presented to him or refused to pay. In one instance a man attending a convention was so badly beaten that his life was despaired of, following which an appeal was made to owners at the convention to buy their liquor from their hotel bootlegger and not depend upon cabmen to take them to "safe" places. In most instances the victims have not dared to complain or prosecute because of the notoriety.

There has also been what appears to be an organized band specializing in the robbery of motorists, particularly those attached to Roman Catholic churches.

OKLAHOMA CITY GUSHER PLACED UNDER CONTROL

Cement Forced Into Well Stops the Flow of Oil and Gas. By the Associated Press. OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Aug. 19.—The latest wild oil well to show Oklahoma City's south suburbs with petroleum, thereby creating a serious fire hazard, was placed under control yesterday after it had gushed unbridled for 25 hours. Cement pumped into the well, known as the C. C. Julian Oil & Royalty Co.'s No. 2 hoser, stopped the flow of oil and gas. The cement was forced into the hole under high pressure. The gusher developed a cellar leak Sunday, oil and gas escaping in clouds which rolled close to the ground, enveloping nearby dwellings and small business houses. Families in the area fled their homes, a fire guard maintained a constant vigil, other producing wells nearby were stifled and traffic was shut off a paved highway near the well. The escaping vapor, unlike that from the Wild

Mary Sudik and other rampant gushers of the past, did not blow high into the air but lingered in the vicinity, hanging low and adding to fire dangers. The oil flow was 200 barrels an hour. Gas estimated at $50,000,000 cubic feet daily.

C. C. Julian, owner of the rampant gusher, for several days has been at odds with other operators in the local pool over conservation questions. Advised that the State Corporation Commission had no intention of entering into a curtailment agreement.

Why A&P prices for good food are low

A & P has millions of customers all over the country, and more customers are coming to A & P stores every day because they find there the good food they want at prices they know to be as low as is possible to a going business.

There is no secret about this. Like everyone else in business, A & P buys goods to sell them at a profit. A & P's unusual success is due to two facts:

(1) A & P buys the best wherever the best can be bought at greatest advantage to A & P customers;
(2) A & P sells the best for only a little more than the best costs—plus selling expense. It can do both these things because so many people buy in its stores.

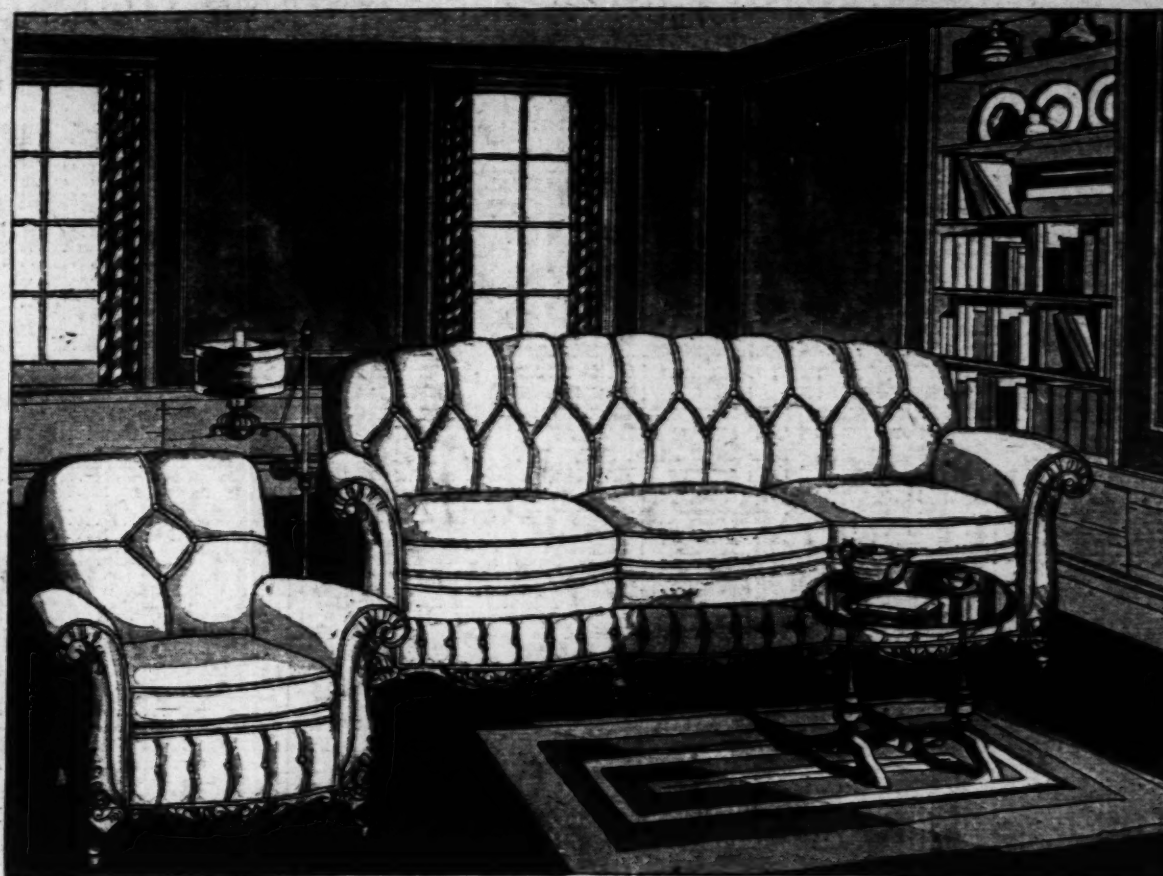

These people know that A & P passes on to them all the saving when prices fall at the sources of supply, retaining, under all conditions, no more than its regular profit—2½ cents in the dollar.

SALLYWhy Aren't Wedding Rings for Men Practical?

By SALLY MARTIN

DEAR MISS MARTIN: I'm very curious to know... the public's... on the subject of wed... rings for men?

Generally I would feel very... if my husband would wear... wedding rings. I would feel that... he was part of the whole world... and that he expects his wife to love... and that he hopes for more than... just mere affection.

All the jewelry shops are display... engagement rings for... and they seem to have met... with the approval of most of the... men I know. Perhaps that is due... to the fact that engagement rings... can hardly be told from the gen... eral run of rings worn by men... while the wedding rings are very... perceptible what they are, and... class man as a "One Woman Man."

From my experience with these... men, I am sure that this is the... attitude he expects his wife to have... and that he hopes for more than... just mere affection.

Women are never asked if they... want to wear wedding rings. It's... just taken for granted that it's the... custom and it'll be done accord...

The men, however, seem to... strenuously object to "branding"... themselves as "married." Apparent... they see no reason for making... themselves less attractive by open... ly admitting family ties before the... Great Young Things in the office... whose sweet smiles and admiring... chatter are so soothing to the Tired... Business Man.

Never satisfied with the love... and admiration of one woman, man... seems to crave the "flattering" re... putation of being free to be the Sweet... Wonderful Dear to all the women... with whom he comes in contact. But... he raises a squawk like a... hatched hen if his wife doesn't label... herself as his property.

Yes, Sally, I have been mar... ried and had a wedding ring. My... husband would have passed out... with injured astonishment if I had... dared about wearing it. But he... fatly refused to ever allow me to... even try it on his finger. His... excuse was that he "couldn't" ever... stand wearing a ring. Oh, yes! I... well, I'm not crazy about the feel... ing, myself. But I wasn't asked... it was just stuck on to stay, where... it annoyed me or not.

"Anyway, my admiration goes... to the man who wants and wears... a wedding ring. The man who... is in love with his wife and... isn't afraid to admit it.

"What do you think of the sub... ject, Sally? And I'd like to know... what the rest of your readers, both... married and single, think of it, too."

2. How much of the choice of a... table should a man leave to the... head waiter, and how much should... he assume himself? Is it proper... for him to suggest to the head... waiter the table that he prefers?

3. I am particularly glad that you... asked this question, for it is... one of my social "hobbies." I want... to be most emphatic in my answer... —a gentleman should himself help... the lady to take off her coat and... to put it on, and should not leave... this courteous and gallant atten... tion to a waiter.

I am delighted to find that men... feel the same way about it that... women do.

Before the gentleman takes his... seat at table, he stands just behind... the chair of the lady, and helps her... with her coat. A well-trained... waiter will not make any attempt... to help, for he understands that it... is more a gesture of hospitality... than of service.

When the meal is finished, the... lady should wait until he has risen... and has come to the back of her... chair, to hold it while she rises, and... to help her with her coat.

Most men do not wish this privi... lege to be given to the waiter.

2. If the host is well known in... the restaurant and has made him... self so agreeable and pleasant a... guest that he is especially welcom... ed, this question takes care of it... for, he will inevitably get the best... service and be given the best table.

If he is not known and if the... head waiter indicates a table that... is excellently placed, this, too, makes it easy.

But if the table that the head... waiter assigns is near a swinging... door or the serving room, or by a... noisy serving table, the host should... quietly and firmly ask for another... table—unless, of course, the room... is so crowded that obviously no... change is possible.

No one appears so futile or so... provincial as a man who enters a... public place with a lady or ladies, registers as he looks about him, a... wobbly helplessness or self-con... scious indecision. And nothing so... embarrassing the essential and at... tractive qualities of manliness and... good breeding as a man's ability to... assume the direction of his guests, in public anywhere, with solicitude, unobtrusive care for their com... fort and pleasure.

If a man realized how proud and... relieved a woman is to be with a... man who knows what's what, who... is sure—but not too sure—of what... he should want, who masterfully... takes the lead in finding places... where places are to be found; who... attracts service to himself by his... indubitable air of discrimination... and ease and poise, he would strive... to acquire this distinguished air of... having "been out." In this ques... tion of getting or finding the right... table, a man shows this at once.

Do not mean, of course, that the... man needs to be arrogant in his... insistence on his "rights." A waiter... soon discovers that arrogance is a... bluff to cover the fact that one... really doesn't know. A blustering... boorish person is one who is trying... to impress his companion or the... waiter—and he usually succeeds in... impressing neither.

Bib Necklaces in Paris

PARISIANS have discovered a... new way of donning six neck... laces where only one sufficed... before. It necessitates the latest... version of the bib necklace, whose... graduated strands cover the front... of the frock like a bib and the back... of the neck like a dog collar.

The first bib necklaces intro... duced last year were made of rows... of emeralds, a single necklace... wound around and around the... throat. This fashion grew into a... fad at once, although some women... found the overlapping strands un... comfortable under large collars... and the wide brims of hats.

Bib necklaces were evolved to... those in which several chains were... fastened together with a single... clasp—a device which permitted... wearing the necklace with a single... strap easily adapted to various... uses, the new Paris jewel bib has... the advantage over its predecess... ors. The six separate necklaces... are all of different lengths, so that... one or any number suited to a par... ticular dress may be worn and the... others left off.

Grapefruit With Mint Jelly

Cut a grapefruit in half and... loosen the pulp from the rind and... partitions by running a sharp knife... along the edge of the pulp. Do not... cut out the seeds, but remove all... seeds. Cut out every third or fourth... section of grapefruit and replace it... by a wedge-shaped slice of mint... jelly. Another delicious way to... serve grapefruit is to cut it in... halves, remove the seeds and fill... a spoonful of orange marmalade, cherry jam or plum jam. The jam... acts as a sweetener for the grape... fruit. These are delightful substitu... tes for a fruit cocktail, especial... ly for a meat or fowl dinner.

Egg and Olive Sandwiches

Another little suggestion for the... picnic basket. Press four hard-boiled eggs through a ricer. Season... with salt and pepper and blend... with mayonnaise. Add two table... spoons chopped stuffed olives. Mix well and spread between... slices of buttered graham bread.

Kissing

ISSING is an ancient and hon... orable indulgence, endorsed by... the Old Testament and in the... classical poetry of the Greeks. But... it is not a universal practice. There... are some races to whom kissing is... unknown and the suggestion re... pulsive.

Since the science of germ life... (bacteriology) has come into be... ing, the subject of kissing and its... relation to disease transmission has... been carefully studied. The conclu... sions drawn are that kissing is a... hazardous practice.

The mouth is an ideal growing... place for germs. It is dark, warm... and moist. Minute particles of food... matter that are always to be found... in the mouth serve as a feeding... and breeding ground for numerous... kinds of bacteria. The mouth, therefore, is really an unsanitary... place.

Anton von Leeuwenhoek, in the... latter part of the eighteenth cen... tury, was the first to see through... his crude microscope the minute... living things called animalcules... (minute little animals) that abound... in the scrapings from the teeth, and... gums.

A large number of disease-pro... ducing germs may be found in the... secretions of the mouth of the aver... age person, and the secretions of... the nose and throat are known to... be the vehicles in which the infec... tious agents of many a serious dis... ease is transmitted.

Kissing an infant or a child is a... bad practice, particularly if the... child be kissed on the mouth. The... danger of the transmission of in... fection is substantially decreased... if the child is kissed on the neck... or on some other parts of the body... remote from the mouth.

While this item is bound to pro... voke an indignant smile, the hu... mor in it should not make us in... different to its importance.

Quiet Hour

THE long summer days tempt... children to play out of doors... until dark. For some reason or... other the hour before bedtime is... the one in which they usually... choose to play the most violent and... exciting games.

They show a tendency to become... nervously stimulated and to work... themselves up to the highest pitch... of excitement. Natural as this is, it... is generally considered best for... children to be quiet at this particu... lar time.

For this reason mothers would... do well to plan always for a pleas... ant, quiet hour at home.

This is the hour for story-telling... and talk, for reading, for playing... with puzzles and crayons. Older... children will perhaps enjoy doing... some kind of hand work. Quiet... sitting down games are in order.

Children who have been accus... tomed to running around and play... ing violently just before going to... bed probably will object at first to... being brought indoors to what may... seem to them listless occupation.

Another therefore must be care... ful to make the diversions of quiet... hour appear as real privileges re... served only for that particular time... of day, and therefore to be looked... forward to with anticipation.

Her success in making her chil... dren accept such a regime depends... wholly upon her skill in putting... over the idea.

DIET FOR THE FAT AND THIN

THE semi-fasting efforts of some women in attempting to cultivate lead pencil figures are nothing more or less than flirtations with the state health authorities said in the current issue of the Missouri Public Health News.

On the other hand the old proverb, "Width and Wisdom go together" was a fine alibi for serious eaters, Laybourn said, until the statisticians came along and showed that hoarding surplus food in one's anatomy in the form of fat is simply putting an unnecessary load on the heart and other organs of the body and that people who are very much overweight do not live as long as those of normal weight.

"As a consequence," Laybourn said, "more and more people are eating to live instead of living to eat."

"The amount of fuel necessary to operate a machine depends upon the amount of work done and the amount of heat given off. The fireman doesn't throw all the fuel that can possibly be burned under the boilers of a power plant just to make a big hot fire, but governs his firing by the amount of energy needed for the work in hand. Food is the fuel of the human machine and the amount consumed should be governed by the same principles as those used in firing a boiler. The amount needed depends largely upon the amount of energy given off in work and heat and in warm weather, very little food is needed to supply that."

"An attempt to exist on less food than is necessary to supply bodily needs is just as undesirable as over-eating and has the same effect on one's chances of living to a ripe old age. The spread of semi-fasting which have been a fad with some of the fair sex in attempting to cultivate lead-pencil figures are nothing more or less than flirtations with the underbelly of the consequences are to be found in the death rates from tuberculosis and other maladies, since these debilitating diets lower the general resistance of the body to the point where dangerous bacteria easily gain a foothold in the faddists system and carry out their nefarious business of destruction and death. There is a difference between being slender and being thin and if nature has not modeled your bony framework on slender lines, a diet of lamb chops, vinegar and a lettuce leaf is not going to change it. Of course, no one particularly admires an over-emphasized figure, but a reasonable amount of fat is necessary as a reserve supply of energy for emergencies, so, lady, be reasonable, moderately rounded corners are one of the indications of a healthy and well-regulated body."
